#FreshmanFoot Azusa Pacific freshman Ramzee Jaridly was named the GNAC Special Teams Player of the Week after he went 3 for 3 on field goals, with a long kick of 39 yards, in his first collegiate game at West Texas A&M.

#TheBigShow Central Washington will host No. 2 Ferris State on Saturday in a game that will be streamed nationally on ESPN3 as part of the Division II Football Showcase.

Test Awaits For Central Washington On ESPN3

Central Washington provided for the closest game for GNAC teams in week one of the season. This week, the Wildcats will have a chance to show off in a very tough test in front of an ESPN3 audience.

After falling to Division I-FCS Idaho 41-31 last week, Central Washington hosts No. 2 Ferris State in a game that will be streamed nationally as part of the NCAA Division II Football Showcase.

The Wildcats provided the Vandals quite the battle in the Kibbie Dome, building as much as a seven-point lead in the second quarter. The Vandals came back to take a 10-point fourth quarter lead, but Tony Archie's 39-yard touchdown pass to JoJo Hillel brought CWU within 34-31 with seven minutes left.

Central Washington finished with a respectable 359 yards of total offense in the contest and converted on every red zone opportunity.

Ferris State will provide just as tough if not a tougher challenge for the Wildcats. Ranked No. 2 in the latest AFCA Division II Coaches Top 25, the Bulldogs advanced to the 2018 NCAA Division II championship game. The Bulldogs were on the losing end of an exciting 49-47 contest with Valdosta State.

Ferris State enters the week with a 1-0 record after a 24-23 home win last week over Findlay. The Bulldogs had to hold off a late rally by the Oilers, who saw a two-point conversion opportunity fail with 51 seconds left to avoid the upset.

Central Washington had one of two Division I-FCS opponents last week. Simon Fraser had a solid start at Portland State, with Rysen John scoring on a 60-yard touchdown pass three plays into the game. The Vikings rebounded from a slow start, however, to roll to the 70-7 win.

Western Oregon opened the 2019 campaign on Thursday, dropping a 45-20 game to Angelo State. Azusa Pacific also opened in Lone Star country, falling at West Texas A&M 35-16.

The Wolves will host the other GNAC home game this weekend, welcoming No. 12 Texas A&M-Commerce to McArthur Field. Simon Fraser plays at Angelo State while Azusa Pacific travels to Missouri S&T.
