Week of Dec. 10-16: Yusef Aziz, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 6-4, Jr., Seattle, WA - Foster & Highline CC) and Austin Nichols, Humboldt State (Forward, 6-5, So., Berkeley, CA) . . . Aziz scored 40 points and also had 10 rebounds as the Falcons won two games in the Las Vegas High Desert Classic. Nichols had a GNAC season-high 38 against the Crusaders, cashing in on nine of 12 field goal attempts (4 of 6 three-pointers) and 16 of 17 foul shots. His lone foul shot miss against NNU snapped a string of 24 consecutive free throws without a miss.

He had 17 points and 10 rebounds in Friday's 14-point loss and 36 points and 13 rebounds in Saturday's six-point defeat. The latter point total was the most for a UAA player since Jason Kaiser scored 36 against Hawaii Hilo on Feb. 18, 1995.

Week of Dec. 31-Jan. 6: A. J. Giesa, Western Washington (Forward, 6-7, Sr., Kennewick, WA) scored a game-high 20 points in a 104-76 win over Northwest Nazarene and tied for game-high scoring honors with 20 points in a 86-84 win over Seattle as the Vikings extended their winning streak to five with a pair of victories. Week of Jan. 7-13: Fred Hooks, Humboldt State (Forward, 6-5, So., San Diego, CA) and Gerrit Eades, Saint Martin's (Forward, 6-8, Sr., Bend, OR - Mountain View) . . . Hooks, who set a PacWest record last year by snagging 29 rebounds against Hawaii Hilo, had the two best single-game rebound totals this winter in the GNAC, pulling down 20 against Alaska Fairbanks and 19 against Alaska Anchorage as the Lumberjacks extended their winning streak to 14. Hooks also scored 38 points in the two contests and also was credited with seven assists. . . Eades led the Saints to a pair of road wins, contributing 42 points (15-30 FG, 3-6 three-pointers) and 19 rebounds. He had a double-double (27 points, 10 rebounds) against Northwest Nazarene and scored 13 points in a 5 1/2 minute span as the Saints went on a 17-4 run to overcome an 11-point second-half deficit.

Week of Jan. 14-20: Mike Palm, Western Washington (Center, 6-10, 230, Jr., Puyallup, WA) and Brannon Stone, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 6-9, Sr., Oak Harbor) . . . Palm had his fourth and fifth double-doubles of the season as he led the Vikings to their sixth and seventh wins in their last eight outings (their only loss during that stretch of games came at Seattle Pacific). He had season highs of 25 points and 14 rebounds in a 42-point win over UAF and also had 13 points and 10 rebounds (in just 20 minutes) in a 20-point victory against UAA. In the two contests, Palm, who earlier this season had a GNAC-best free throw streak of 32 in a row, hit on 13 of 19 shots, including his first three-point in two seasons, and 11 of 14 free throws. He also reached the 1,000 point career plateau against UAF on his final shot, became the 17th player in Viking school history, including four from this year's roster, to accomplish that feat. . . Stone, who has taken on more of a playmaking role for the Falcons this winter, scored 31 points and also had 11 assists (and just one turnover), as SPU extended its winning streak to a school-record 15 with 25 and 31-point victories over UAF and UAA, respectively. Week of Jan. 21-27: Mark White, Humboldt State (Guard, 6-2, So., Bozeman, MT) and Kevin Richard, Northwest Nazarene (Forward, 6-5, Jr., Pasadena, CA) . . . White guided the Lumberjacks to showdown wins over Seattle Pacific and Western Washington. The HSU point guard not only had an outstanding 5-to-1 assist to turnover ratio (10 assists, two turnovers), but was also productive scoring-wise, contributing a season-high 17 points in a six-point win against SPU and scoring 15 points - equaling his second highest output of the season - in a 100-86 conquest of WWU. In the two contests, the GNAC assist leader hit on seven of 15 shots, including three of seven three-pointers, and also made 15 of 16 foul shots. . .
