GNAC WOMEN'S SOCCER ALL-TIME PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

2001

Week of Aug. 20-26: Andrea Larson, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 5-4, Sr., Portland, OR - Central Catholic), a transfer from Oklahoma State where she scored a career school record 45 points (16 goals, 13 assists), scored the lone goal for the Falcons in both a 1-0 exhibition win over Concordia, Calif., and a 1-1 tie with NAIA nationally 23rd ranked Point Loma Nazarene.

Week of Aug. 27-Sept. 2: Mindy Gibbens, Northwest Nazarene (Forward, 5-5, Sr., Eugene, OR) scored five goals and also had an assist to lead the Crusaders to three victories and the team championship in the Arthur D. Ortman Women's Soccer Invitational at Nampa. Gibbens scored two goals in an 8-0 win over Eastern Oregon on Friday, then had a hat trick, including the game-winning goal in overtime, in a 5-4 win over Carroll on Saturday. On Monday, Mindy earned an assist on NNU's first goal in a 2-0 victory over Albertson College.

Week of Sept. 3-9: Jeanie Thomsen, Western Oregon (Forward, 5-5, So., The Dalles, OR) scored the game-winning goal in a 1-0 win over Division I Portland State and in a 2-1 conference win over Humboldt State. Thomsen also assisted on WOU's other goal against the Lumberjacks.

Week of Sept. 10-16: Michelle Sanders, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 5-9, Fr., Centralia) set up two goals with corner kicks as the Falcons edged Humboldt State 3-2 in a GNAC soccer game Saturday.

Week of Sept. 17-23: Corrina Becker-Wayman, Humboldt State (MF, 5-6, Jr., Eugene, OR - South Eugene) assisted on Meira Dinsmore's game-winning goal in a 2-1 win over Chico State and on Alita Hill's GWG in a 1-0 win over nationally-ranked Sonoma State. Both goals came on corner kicks. "The way she's playing now is the best I've ever seen her play, both offensively and defensively," Coach Andy Cumbo said. "She's creating offensive opportunities and defensively she's playing very aggressive and very smart."

Week of Sept. 24-30: Tafara Pulse, Seattle (MF, 5-3, Fr., Yakima, WA - Eisenhower) scored two goals and had an assist in a 4-0 conference win over Northwest Nazarene Friday. She followed that up scoring the game-winning goal and also assisting on a goal by her former high school teammate Jill Nelson in a 2-1 win over Cal State Bakersfield Sunday as the Redhawks extended their winning streak to three.

Week of Oct. 1-7: Gabby Ahmadi, Humboldt State (Midfielder, 5-5, Jr., Hilo, HI) and Lacey Rasmussen, Northwest Nazarene (Forward-Midfielder, 5-6, Fr., Nampa, ID - Skyview). . Ahmadi, who ranks second in the GNAC in points scored with 18, notched a hat-trick in a 5-0 win over Southern Oregon and then scored a single goal as the Lumberjacks extended their winning streak to six with a 5-1 thrashing of Simon Fraser. It was the worst loss of the season for the perennial NAIA national powers. . Rasmussen scored two goals, including the game-winner as Northwest Nazarene rallied from a 3-0 deficit to defeat Western Oregon 4-3. She also had the game-winner in a 2-1 overtime win over Montana State-Billings.

Week of Oct. 8-14: Shauna Voss, Northwest Nazarene (Goalkeeper, 5-4, So., Yakima, WA - West Valley) had 22 saves as she posted her third and fourth shutouts of the season and lowered her GAA to 1.50 in 1-0 wins over Western Baptist and Central Washington. Voss enabled the Crusaders to improve to 10-3 on the season despite being outshot 43-20 in the two contests, including 18-11 by Western Baptist and 25-9 by Central Washington.

Week of Oct. 15-21: Nichole Sauvageau, Seattle (MF-F, 5-3, Jr., Renton - Liberty) scored two goals in Sunday's 3-1 victory over Central Washington, and played a solid game in a 0-0 draw with Western Washington on Friday as the Redhawks set a new school record with for consecutive games without a loss. They've won nine and tied two of their last 11.

Week of Oct. 22-28: Andrea Larsen, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-4, Sr., Portland, OR - Central Catholic) and Stacy Wyman, Central Washington (MF, 5-4, Jr., Everett). . Larsen registered a hat trick - the fourth one this year in the GNAC - as the Falcons took over first-place in the conference with a 6-0 win over Northwest Nazarene. . Wyman keyed CWU's defense in a 1-0 shutout of Western Washington, helping contain Kristin Whitlock, who had a goal and an assist in the earlier contest between the two arch-rivals "She's been matched up with the best midfielders and forwards in this league," CWU coach Michael Farrand said. "The second time around (in league), she shut down Whitlock and LeRin Farrison of SPU (in a pair of 1-0 wins). She has been our unsung hero. Whether she's been in the middle or on the outside, she has been effective for us. She is a warrior."

Week of Oct. 29-Nov. 4: Lydia Shannon, Western Oregon (MF-F, 5-9, So., Portland, OR - David Douglas) scored two goals, including the game-winner in the 97th minute as the Wolves defeated Seattle Pacific 2-1 to earn a share of the GNAC title with Seattle University.

Week of Aug. 26-Sept. 1: Lacey Rasmussen, Northwest Nazarene (Forward, 5-6, So., Nampa, ID - Skyview) and Jenna Hunter, Humboldt State (MF, 5-4, Jr., Ojai, CA). . Rasmussen scored five goals in three games and was named the Most Valuable Player in the Ortman Women's Soccer tournament at Nampa as she led the Crusaders to three wins and the tournament title. . Hunter scored three goals in a pair of contests and was voted the Most Valuable Player in the Roadrunner Soccer Classic at Bakersfield.

Week of Sept. 2-8: Mariah Talbott, Humboldt State (GK, 5-3, Sr., Moscow, ID) posted back-to-back shutouts in wins over Cal State Stanislaus and Seattle Pacific. Talbott had a total of eight saves, including seven in their league opener against the Falcons.

Week of Sept 9-16: Tafara Pulse, Seattle University (M, 5-3, So., Yakima - Eisenhower) scored three goals and also had three assists as the Redhawks won three of four games, including conference road games at Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene. Pulse contributed two goals and an assist in a 4-0 win at CWU, then had a goal and an assist in a 4-0 win at NNU. She also had an assist in a 3-2 loss against Notre Dame de Namur before sitting out Sunday's 4-0 win over Evergreen State with a hamstring injury.

Week of Sept. 16-22: Megan Lienhard, Seattle Pacific (MF, 5-7, Fr., Everett - Cascade) and Lydia Shannon, Western Oregon (F, 5-9, Jr., Portland, OR - David Douglas). . Lienhard scored one goal and also had four assists as the Falcons blanked previously unbeaten Notre Dame de Namur 2-0 and Northwest Nazarene 4-0. . Shannon had two goals in Western Oregon's 4-0 shutout of Seattle University. She also was credited with an assist in a 6-0 win at Northwest Nazarene.

Week of Sept. 23-29: Moani Mundo, Western Oregon (GK, 5-5, Jr., Kaneohe, HI - Castle) allowed just two goals and had 14 saves as the Wolves won two of three games, including a 2-1 decision Sunday over previously unbeaten and nationally ninth-ranked UC Davis. Mundo had nine saves against the Aggies and two in a 1-0 shutout of Sonoma State on Friday. Mundo currently ranks second in the GNAC with a 0.97 goals against average.

Week of Sept. 30-Oct. 6: Mariel Chandler, Western Oregon (Forward, 5-7, Jr., Las Vegas, NV) scored both of the Wolves' goals in a 2-1 road win at Humboldt State. The Wolves, who play six of their final eight games at home, including five of six conference contests, lead Western Washington by one game and HSU and Seattle University by 1 ½.

Week of Oct. 7-13: Michelle Sanders, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 5-9, So., Centralia, WA) and Shelley Comstock, Western Oregon (Defender, 5-7, Sr., Salem, OR - South Salem). . Sanders had eight points (3 goals, 2 assists) in a 7-1 win against Carroll College to equal a GNAC single-game record and also scored the tying goal in a 2-1 win over Humboldt State. The Falcons have not lost in their last five games. Comstock led Western Oregon's defense, which was nearly impenetrable, allowing just nine shots in shutouts against Central Washington and Western Washington. "Game in and game out, she gets it done for us," WOU coach Rod Fretz said. "Our defense played so well this past weekend, we were never really in danger (of giving up a goal)."

Week of Oct. 14-20: Erin Pierce, Seattle Pacific (Goalkeeper, 5-7, Fr., Milwaukie, OR - Rex Putnam) had six saves in a 5-1 win over first-place Western Oregon as the Falcons extended their unbeaten streak to seven games (6 wins, one tie). "She made several incredible saves and was clearly the difference on the defensive side," SPU coach Bobby Bruch said.

Week of Oct. 21-27: Amy Bouska, Western Washington (Sweeper, 5-11, Jr., Des Moines, WA - Mount Rainer) and Nichole Sauvageau, Seattle (MF, 5-3, Sr., Renton, WA - Liberty). . Bouska led Western Washington's defense, which limited Humboldt State to just nine shots (including one on goal), in a 1-0 victory. Sauvageau scored a goal in the second half to snap a 1-1 tie as the Redhawks rallied from a 1-0 halftime deficit to defeat first-place Western Oregon 3-2. Sauvageau's goal enabled her to move into first place on Seattle's all-time goal scoring list. It was the 45th of her career, one more than former record of 44 set by Ingrid Gunnestad, who played during the 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1992 seasons.

Week of Oct. 28-Nov. 3: Emily Schifferling, Seattle University (GK, 5-10, Jr., Portland, OR - Hillsboro) had five saves, including two from close range, to record her third shutout of the season as the Redhawks kept alive their GNAC title hopes with a 1-0 shutout of Humboldt State.

Week of Nov. 4-10: Megan Lienhard, Seattle Pacific (MF, 5-7, Fr., Everett, WA) scored a pair of goals, including the game-winner in overtime as the Falcons won the Great Northwest Athletic Conference women's soccer title with a 2-1 win over Seattle University on Tuesday. "The entire team really deserves the award, but Megs put away her chances thanks to the great service from (Shannon) Lovejoy, (Katy) Nydam and (LeRin) Farrison," SPU coach Bobby Bruch said. "Our defense held off a great team; it was some of the best end to end action of the year with many great saves by both keepers."

Week of Aug. 25-31: Jamie Kellett, Northwest Nazarene (D, 5-6, Fr., Gig Harbor, WA - Bellarmine Prep) and Shannon Lovejoy, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-8, So., Seattle - Seattle Prep). . Kellett had two game-winning goals as the Crusaders opened their season with a pair of wins to snap a 15-game losing streak. Lovejoy had a seven-point game (3 goals, 1 assist) in a 4-0 shutout of Cal State LA, taking a school-record 10 shots against the Golden Eagles.

Week of Sept. 1-7: Jennifer Hull, Seattle Pacific (GK, 5-6, Jr., Eugene, OR - Sheldon) made two spectacular saves in a two-minute span of the second half and had five altogether in securing her third shutout in four games in a 1-0 win over Sonoma State. She turned a Sonoma free kick to the upper right hand corner around the post and tipped an overhead kick just over the crossbar to keep the Seawolves scoreless.

Week of Sept. 8-14: Jenna Hunter, Humboldt State (F, 5-4, Sr., Ojai, CA) led the Lumberjacks to a pair of road wins. In a 1-0 win at Western Washington, Hunter took four of HSU's 12 shots. Then in a 2-1 overtime victory at Ellensburg against Central Washington, she scored both of HSU's goals and also launched a game-high seven shots.

Week of Sept. 15-21: Tafara Pulse, Seattle (MF, 5-3, Jr., Yakima, WA - Eisenhower) and Teresa Fish, Western Washington (GK, 5-8, Fr., Snohomish, WA - Monroe). . Pulse scored one goal and had two assists in a 4-0 shutout of Central Washington and also scored a goal in a 4-1 win over Western Oregon as the Redhawks extended their winning streak to five contests. Fish didn't allow a goal in 200 minutes and had 10 saves as the Vikings, who are unbeaten in their last three contests, battled to a scoreless deadlock with Seattle Pacific and beat archrival Central Washington 1-0. Fish is working on a scoreless streak of 223:47.

Week of Sept. 22-28: Jessica Henson, Seattle Pacific (MF, 5-2, Jr., Spokane, WA - University) and Shauna Voss, Northwest Nazarene (GK, 5-4, Sr., Yakima, WA - West Valley). . Henson scored both of the Falcons' goal in a 2-0 road win at Humboldt State. She also took three of SPU's 11 shots in a 1-1 tie at Chico State. Voss was credited with 10 saves as NNU upset Western Washington 2-0 to end a six-game losing streak. The win also ended a 21-game conference losing streak dating back to a 1-0 win over Central Washington on Oct. 13, 2001.

Week of Sept. 29-Oct. 5: Kim Halloran, Humboldt State (MF, 5-2, So., Santa Rosa, CA) had an assist in a 4-2 win over Cal State LA and also scored the game-winning goal in a 1-0 win over nationally eighth-ranked Cal State Dominguez Hills.

Week of Oct. 6-12: Jennifer Hull, Seattle Pacific (GK, 5-6, Jr., Eugene, OR - Sheldon) recorded her sixth and seventh shutouts of the season as the Falcons blanked Western Washington and Western Oregon by identical 1-0 scores. 2004

Week of Aug. 23-29: Staci Self, Humboldt State (GK, 5-8, So., Rancho Santo Margarita, CA) and Cassy Smith, Seattle (Forward, 5-6, So., Prosser, WA). . .Self stopped seven of eight shots on goal leading the Lumberjacks to a pair of wins and the tournament title in the 18th annual West Coast Classic women's soccer tournament. . .Smith had an assist on Brenda Zittel's overtime goal in Seattle's 2-1 win over Cal State Dominguez Hills. She then added two goals as the Redhawks struck three times in the second half in a 3-0 win at Cal State Bakersfield.

Week of Aug. 30-Sept. 6: Lesa Lewis, Humboldt State (M, 5-6, Sr., San Diego, CA) scored four goals and had two assists as the Lumberjacks won two of three games, defeating Cascade College 15-0 before splitting a pair of games in their own tournament. Lewis had three goals against Cascade and got the lone goal in Sunday's 1-0 shutout of Cal State San Bernardino.

Week of Sept. 7-12: Kelly Stewart, Seattle (GK, 5-10, Sr., Federal Way, WA – Kennedy) and Samantha Kooy, Central Washington (GK, 5-7, Fr., Lynden, WA – Lynden Christian). . .Stewart didn't allow a goal and had five saves in a pair of 1-0 wins. Both of her saves in Saturday's win over Sonoma were crucial, including one in which she tipped the shot over the bar to preserve the shutout. Stewart has allowed just two goals in six games and has a 0.35 goals against average. . .Kooy made her collegiate debut by posting a pair of shutouts and stopping 10 shots in wins over Evergreen State and Humboldt State.

Week of Sept. 13-19: Lacey Lewis, Humboldt State (M, 5-6, Jr., La Mesa, CA – Cuyamaca) scored four goals, including three in a 4-0 shutout of Western Oregon. She had the game-winning goals – her second and third of the season – against the Wolves and in a 1-0 shutout of Western Washington.

Week of Sept. 20-26: Sarah Martinez, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-6, Fr., Bothell, WA – Cedar Park Christian) and Katy McNutt, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-3, Fr., Vancouver, WA – Evergreen). . .Martinez, who had made just one previous start, was inserted into the starting lineup and contributed two goals and an assist in wins over previously unbeaten Montana State – Billings and Western Oregon. She scored the game-winning goals in both contests and earned an assist on SPU's third goal against the Yellowjackets. . .McNutt scored three goals, the fourth hat-trick of the season in the GNAC, as Northwest Nazarene earned its first conference victory defeating Western Oregon 5-0 to snap a five-game losing streak. McNutt leads the Crusaders with six goals.

Week of Sept. 27-Oct. 3: Shannon Lovejoy, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-8, Jr., Seattle, WA – Seattle Prep) and Leah Wymer, Seattle (F, 5-6, Fr., Bothell, WA). . .Lovejoy set up one goal and scored another as the Falcons remained unbeaten with a 2-0 home win against Humboldt State. Wymer scored the game-winning goal in both the Redhawks' 1-0 overtime win over the Lumberjacks and in a 8-0 victory against CWU. She accumulated five points against the Wildcats with a pair of goals and an assist.

Week of Oct. 4-10: Stephanie Pogue, Western Oregon (D, 5-5, Sr., Eagle Point, OR) contributed both offensively and defensively as the Wolves upset Humboldt State 1-0 Saturday. "Whenever there was an offensive threat by HSU, Stephanie made her presence known," WOU assistant coach Kevin Plechl said. "She provided great defensive support to her outside backs, dominated in the air by winning several headers and provided the leadership in the back. (Offensively) She also gave us the confidence to play out of the back, something we have struggled with all season. It was nice to see us possessing the ball in the back with the ability to change the point of attack through her."

Week of Oct. 11-17: Michelle Sanders, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-9, Sr., Centralia, WA) scored four goals as the Falcons won three road games, including a pair of conference contests. Sanders, who has nine goals on the season, had the game-winning goal in a 3-0 win at Cal State Monterey Bay on Monday. She then scored twice in an 8-1 romp over Northwest Nazarene on Thursday and got another goal in a 2-0 shutout of Western Washington on Saturday.

Week of Oct. 18-24: Becky Myrold, Western Oregon (F-M, 5-4, Fr., Corvallis, OR – Crescent) had three goals and an assist as the Wolves won two games and also earned a draw with Grand Canyon. Myrold had two goals, including the game-winner in a 5-0 shutout of Southern Oregon. She had an assist on the game-winning goal in a 2-1 overtime win over Western Baptist and also scored the go-ahead goal only to see Grand Canyon tie it with an own goal in the final minute in a 2-2 tie with the Antelopes.

Week of Oct. 25-31: Chela Gray, Western Washington (F, 5-5, Jr., Kaneohe, HI - Iolani) and Ashley Porter, Seattle (MF, 5-9, Fr., Redmond, WA - Inglemoor). . .Gray had a pair of game-winning goals as the Vikings extending their win streak to four with shutout wins over Grand Canyon and Western Oregon. Gray, who has eight goals on the season, has had the game-winning goal in each of the Vikings' last three contests. . .Porter also had two game-winning goals as the Redhawks edged Central Washington 2-1 and defeated NNU 5-2. She also earned an assist against the Crusaders. Her game-winner against CWU came with 1:09 remaining in regulation.

Week of Nov. 1-7: Michelle Everson, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-6, Sr., Tacoma, WA – Stadium) had two assists – her 10th and 11th of the season - in a 4-0 shutout of Seattle University to establish a school single-season record. Everson also anchors SPU's back line, which recorded their 15th and 16th shutouts of the season (one short of the NCAA Division II record of 17) with identical 4-0 wins over Central Washington and SU.

2005

Week of Aug. 22-28: Carolyn Nason, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-4, Jr., Lafayette, CO) and Ana Gutierrez, Seattle (D, 5-2, Jr., Las Cruces, NM – Inglemoor). .Nason scored the game-winning goal on a header and also played solid defense, helping to not allow a shot by any Chico forward in the Falcons' 5-1 win over the Wildcats in a rematch of last year's NCAA Division II West Region semifinals. .Gutierrez is the leader of Seattle's brand new defense that not only shutout its first two opponents, but also allowed just a combined eight shots. Gutierrez also scored her first career goal on a penalty kick in a 7-0 win over CSU Monterey Bay. "Ana was just great in defense," Seattle coach Julie Woodward said. "With our new defense, Ana's ability to organize and communicate kept us very solid across the back line. I didn't feel that either team was going to score against us."

Week of Aug. 29-Sept. 4: Ashley Porter, Seattle University (M, 5-9, So., Redmond, WA – Inglemoor) and Rosie Zadra, Western Washington (F, 5-1, So., Poulsbo, WA – North Kitsap & Olympic CC). .Porter scored two goals and had three assists as the Redhawks won three games against CCAA opponents. She figured in all three goals in Sunday's 3-1 win over Cal State Bakersfield, scoring one and assisting on two of them. Zadra scored the game-winning goal in 1-0 wins over Cal Poly Pomona and Cal State Bakersfield. Her goal against CPP came in the 73rd minute and her goal against Bakersfield came in overtime on a 30-yard blast.

Week of Sept. 5-11: Sarah Martinez, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-6, So., Bothell, WA – Cedar Park Christian) scored three goals to lead the Falcons (5-0) to a pair of road victories as they extended their regular-season unbeaten streak to 42 games (40 wins, two ties). Martinez scored SPU's third goal Wednesday in a 5-0 shutout of Cal Poly Pomona and then struck for a pair of second-half goals Saturday in a 2-1 come-from-behind win over nationally 17th -ranked Cal State Dominguez Hills, snapping a 13-game Toro home win streak.

Week of Sept. 12-18: Heidi Jacobson, Seattle Pacific (F-M, 5-4, Sr., Kirkland, WA – Cedar Park Christian) scored three goals, including a pair of game winners in victories at Cal State Bakersfield and Northwest Nazarene. Her goal at Bakersfield snapped a 1-1 tie in overtime. She then scored SPU's first and last goals – her sixth and seventh of the season – in SPU's 4-0 conference-opening win at Nampa. Jacobson now has 19 career goals and 14 assists and ranks fifth in GNAC career scoring with 52 points.

Week of Sept. 19-25: Meghan Michaud, Central Washington (GK, 5-5, Fr., Renton, WA – Hazen) and Sarah Martinez, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-6, So., Bothell, WA – Cedar Park Christian). .Michaud had 10 saves and allowed just one goal in leading CWU to three wins, including its first victory over Seattle University since 1995, snapping a 15-game losing streak to the Redhawks. Among her saves was one from five yards out in a one-and-one situation against Leah Wymer in CWU's 2-1 overtime win against SU. .Martinez had four goals, including a hat trick against Western Oregon, as the Falcons remained unbeaten with shutout wins over Grand Canyon, WOU and Humboldt State. She was also taken down in the box by a HSU defender denying her a possible fifth goal.

Week of Sept. 26-Oct. 2: Shannon Lovejoy, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-8, Sr., Seattle, WA - Seattle Prep) and Ashley Porter, Seattle University (M, 5-9, So., Redmond, WA – Inglemoor). .Lovejoy lifted the Falcons to their 11th straight win scoring on an overtime penalty kick and also assisting on another score in a 2-1 overtime win over Western Washington. The goal and assist raised her career point total to exactly 100 as she joined Seattle University's Nichole Sauvageau as the only members of the GNAC 100-point club. Lovejoy is the current leader in points per game, averaging 1.37. .Porter had an assist on the game-winning goal in a 2-1 win at Humboldt State and then scored twice, including the game-winner, in a 4-0 shutout at Western Oregon, as the Redhawks won a pair of road games.

Week of Oct. 3-9: Erica Hibbard, Western Oregon (D, 5-6, So., Vancouver, WA – Hudson's Bay) led the Wolf defense to a 2-0 shutout of Northwest Nazarene. "Erica had a brilliant game, shutting down a lot of their scoring chances single handedly," WOU head coach Rod Fretz said. "She controlled the defense all day long and play as well as a defender can play."

Week of Oct. 10-16 and Oct. 17-23: Megan Lienhard, Seattle Pacific (Forward, 5-7, Sr., Everett, WA – Cascade) scored the game's only goal in the third minute in a 1-0 win over Western Washington to complete a season sweep of the Vikings and win the award for Oct. 3-9. She beat two defenders and fired a hard, low 12-yarder past keeper Theresa Fish. She recorded her second career hat trick and also had an assist in a 7-0 win over Northwest Nazarene to win the award for Oct. 10-16. Lienhard, who has eight goals this season, ranks sixth in GNAC career history with 73 points (26 goals, 21 assists).

Week of Oct. 24-30: Staci Self, Humboldt State (GK, 5-8, Jr., Rancho Santo Margarita, CA – Trabuco Hills) had 16 saves and allowed just one goal as the Lumberjacks earned a 1-1 draw with Seattle Pacific before shutting out Western Washington 2-0. Self had 12 saves against the Vikings in recording her fifth shutout of the season and the 17 th of her career as she lowered her goals against average to 1.32. "Staci has been huge all year and she was huge today," HSU coach Andy Cumbo said after Saturday's victory. "She made stops on their huge opportunities and kept us in the first half."

Week of Oct. 31-Nov. 6: Shannon Lovejoy, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-8, Sr., Seattle, WA - Seattle Prep) and Katie Warner, Western Washington (D, 5-8, Fr., Burlington, WA – Burlington-Edison). .Lovejoy scored three goals in wins over Central Washington and Seattle University as the Falcons clinched their fourth straight GNAC title with 3-1 and 3-0 wins. Lovejoy now has 109 career points (41 goals, 27 assists) and needs just one point in the playoffs to equal the GNAC career scoring record held by Seattle University's Nichole Sauvageau. .Warner helped lead the Vikings to a pair of shutouts, including a scoreless tie with Seattle and a 9-0 win over Central Washington. She had two assists in the latter contest. WWU finished its season posting three shutouts in its final four games.

Week of Aug. 20-27: Ana Gutierrez, Seattle University (D, 5-2, Sr., Las Cruces, NM – Inglemoor) and Amanda Font, Western Washington (M, 5-9, Jr., Federal Way, WA – Decatur). .Gutierrez a three-time GNAC first team all-star, assisted on the first goal scored at the new Championship Field and led the charge in shutting out Cal State Monterey Bay 4-0 Thursday. On Saturday, she was matched up with the best forwards on Chico State's squad and did not let them get past her, as Seattle drew a tie with the 25th-ranked squad. .Font had a goal and assist as the Vikings surprised 19 th -ranked Cal State Dominguez Hills 2-0. She fed Alyssa Kessler near the top of the penalty box and Kessler then played a ball to Katie Weber, who tapped it in from six yards out for WWU's first goal. Later, she rose above a crowd to head in a corner from Meghan Woodman.

Week of Aug. 28-Sept. 3: Ally Meyer, Western Oregon (GK, 5-6, Jr., Portland, OR – Central Catholic) had 14 saves, including one on a penalty shot, as she recorded a pair of shutouts. She had 10 saves in a 0-0 overtime tie with Chico State, a game in which the Wildcats outshot the Wolves 31-8. She then earned four saves in a 1-0 win over Humboldt. The Lumberjacks, who had a 15-3 shot advantage, took two penalty kicks, one of which Meyer saved. The other hit the crossbar and bounced away.

Week of Sept. 4-10: Lindsay Mitchell, Central Washington (F, 5-4, Jr., Federal Way, WA) led the Wildcats to two wins, assisting on one goal in a 2-0 win over Albertson and scoring a goal and also contributing an assist in a 4-2 victory over Eastern Oregon. Her assist against Eastern Oregon set up CWU's goal-ahead goal against the Mountaineers. She then added an insurance goal as CWU tallied at least four goals in a game for the first time since defeating Albertson 5-0 in its 2004 season opener.

Week of Sept. 11-17: Cassy Smith, Seattle (F, 5-6, Sr., Prosser, WA) and Katie Weber, Western Washington (M, 5-7, Sr., Yakima, WA – Eisenhower). .Smith earned four assists to lead the Redhawks to shutout wins over Central Washington (3-0), Northwest Nazarene (5-0) and Grand Canyon (2-0). She had an assist on Seattle's game-winning goal against Grand Canyon and also had assists on their second goal in all three matches. She currently ranks second in the GNAC to teammate Ashley Porter with seven assists and is fifth in total points with 11. Porter has eight assists. .Weber scored four goals, including a hat-trick in a 5-1 win over Grand Canyon as the Vikings also earned three victories, including a 3-0 conference win at Western Oregon. The Vikings outscored their three opponents by an 11-1 margin, outshooting them 56-17.

Week of Sept. 18-24: Kayla Stiegemeier, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-4, Fr., Rathdrum, ID – Lakeland) scored three goals as the Falcons registered a trio of Far West region victories. After defeating Cal State San Bernardino 2-0 on Monday, SPU beat Northwest Nazarene 4-0 on Thursday and Grand Canyon 2-1 Saturday. Stiegemeier scored twice in the win over the Crusaders and got the game-winning goal in Saturday's victory against Grand Canyon. On the season, she ranks seventh in scoring in the conference with five goals.

Week of Sept. 25-Oct. 1: Kaitlyn Jackson, Seattle (GK, 5-7, Jr., Kent, WA – Kennedy Prep) had 12 saves, including eight in a 1-0 shutout victory of Seattle Pacific, as she recorded her sixth shutout of the season and lowered her goals against average to 0.34. She had four saves in a 2-1 overtime win at Western Washington, including a key stop midway through the second half. The win over SPU snapped the Falcons' 47-game conference unbeaten streak, which included 43 wins and four ties dating back to the 2002 season.

Week of Oct. 2-8: Amanda Font, Western Washington (M, 5-9, Jr., Federal Way, WA – Decatur) scored the game-winning goal as the Vikings earned their first-ever win over Seattle Pacific and was also credited with an assist on WWU's first goal in a 2-1 overtime victory over Dixie. On the season, Font has four goals and four assists and has helped lead the Vikings to seven wins in their last eight contests.

Week of Oct. 9-15: Katie Warner, Western Washington (D, 5-8, So., Burlington, WA – Burlington-Edison) and Alex Kirk, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-9, Fr., Edmonds, WA – Edmonds-Woodway). .Warner was instrumental from her sweeper position in leading the Vikings to shutout wins over Dixie and Northwest Nazarene. WWU's defense allowed just seven shots on goal in the two contests as they recorded their seventh and eighth shutouts of the season. WWU has won nine of its last 10, losing only in overtime to Seattle University. Kirk scored three goals as the Falcons won a pair of road games. She scored one goal and earned an assist on the game-winning goal in a 2-1 win over Dixie and also had a pair of goals in a 5-2 win at Northwest Nazarene.

Week of Oct. 16-22: Tricia Loomis, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-11, Jr., Des Moines, WA - Mount Rainier) and Ashley Porter, Seattle (M, 5-9, Jr., Redmond, WA – Inglemoor) provided assists as their teams combined for five wins. .Loomis' playmaking helped the Falcons to conference wins over Western Washington (3-0) and Western Oregon (1-0). She assisted on the game-winner in both matches, and totaled three assists on the week. .Porter had four assists in three victories to equal her own GNAC single-season record of 14 assists. She also moved into 10 th place on the GNAC career scoring list with 70 points and now ranks second on the GNAC career assist list with 34, three away from the record of 37 set by SU's Tafara Pulse between 2001 and 2004.

Week of Oct. 23-29: Leah Wymer , Seattle (F, 5-6, Jr., Bothell, WA) scored the game-winning goal after a 25-yard run as the Redhawks defeated Seattle Pacific 1-0 in overtime to win their first conference title since 2001 and end SPU's four-year title run.

Week of Oct. 30-Nov. 5: Janae Godoy, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-4, Fr., Yakima, WA – West Valley) scored the game-winning goal in a 1-0 overtime win over Seattle University and also created strong chances for others in that game. She also contributed strong defense in the midfield in loss to UC San Diego in Far West Regional title game.

Week of Aug. 20-26: Janica Larsen, MSU Billings (D, 5-8, Sr., Salt Lake City, UT - Skyline) led the Yellowjacket defense, which allowed just two goals in three road contests, including 3-1 and 5-0 wins over Adams State and Eastern New Mexico and a 1-0 overtime loss to Fort Lewis. MSUB's defense gave up just 13 shots on goal in the three contests. "She was the anchor of the defense this weekend and was the only player to play every minute of three games in four days," MSUB coach Don Trentham said.

Week of Aug. 27-Sept. 2: Sarah Martinez, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-6, Sr. Bothell, WA – Cedar Park Christian) had the most productive offensive week in GNAC history, scoring 13 points on five goals and three assists in wins over Humboldt State, Sonoma State and Cal State Stanislaus. She scored three goals and also earned an assist in a 4-1 win over Humboldt, was credited with an assist on SPU's lone goal in a 1-0 win over Sonoma and scored her team's first two goals and got another assist in a 7-1 thrashing of Stanislaus. Martinez already has 17 points (7 goals, 3 assists) and three game-winning goals this season and now ranks fourth in GNAC history in points with 96 and first in GWG with 17.

Week of Sept. 3-9: Shannon Oakes, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-5, Jr., Boise, ID) earned assists on the Falcons' game-winning goals in wins over Chico State (1-0) and Notre Dame de Namur (3-0) as SPU improved to 6-0. Janae Godoy converted Oakes' shot off the crossbar against Chico into the game's only goal, while Oakes set up Sarah Martinez for the game-winning goal against the Argos.

Week of Sept. 10-16: Janae Godoy, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-4, So., Yakima, WA – West Valley) scored all three of the Falcons' goals in wins over Central Washington (1-0) and Western Washington (2-1) as SPU improved to 8-0. Godoy is currently tied for third in the conference with five goals.

Week of Sept. 17-23: Amber Easterbrook, Central Washington (GK, 5-5, So., Kent, WA – Kentwood) and Katy McNutt, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-3, Sr., Vancouver, WA - Evergreen). . .Easterbrook had eight saves in recording a shutout in a 3-0 win over regionally eighth-ranked Montana State Billings as the Wildcats snapped a five-game winless streak. McNutt scored four of NNU's six goals, including both game winners, in 3-0 road wins at Western Oregon and Saint Martin's as the Crusaders improved to 3-1 in the GNAC, their best start in conference history. McNutt has eight goals this season and ranks fifth in GNAC history with 38 career goals.

Week of Sept. 24-30: Jocelyn Charette, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-10, So., Lakewood, WA) and Teresa Fish, Western Washington (GK, 5-7, Sr., Snohomish, WA - Monroe). . .Charette, a transfer from the University of Tampa, was a key component in the Falcons' 2-1 over Seattle University Saturday, earning an assist on Shannon Oakes' first-half goal and then getting the game-winner in overtime. She had a team-high five shots including a free kick in the second half that forced a diving save by Redhawk keeper Kaitlyn Jackson. She also took three shots in SPU's 1-0 shutout of Montana State Billings on Thursday. . .Fish had eight saves in posting two shutouts – her 26th and 27th of her career – in 3-0 and 4-0 road wins at Western Oregon and Saint Martin's. Fish, who has seven shutouts this season, is now the GNAC's all-time career leader. She previously shared the record of 25 with Seattle Pacific's Jennifer Hull (2001-04).

Week of Oct. 1-7: Shawna Chastain, Central Washington (D, 5-7, Jr., San Diego, CA – University City) anchored a Wildcat defense that held Western Washington without a shot in the first half (and 12 for the game) in a 1-0 win. CWU has now allowed just one goal (in overtime) in its last four contests. "Saturday's effort was typical for our girls in their ability to stay organized, win balls and not allow teams to get inside our penalty box," CWU coach Michael Farrand said. "As the central defender, Shawna takes charge and keeps our defense compact and working together."

Week of Oct. 8-14: Sarah Martinez, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-6, Sr., Bothell, WA – Cedar Park Christian). Leah Wymer, Seattle (F, 5-6, Sr., Bothell, WA) and Erica Hibbard, Western Oregon (D, 5-6, Sr., Vancouver, WA – Hudson's Bay). . .Martinez became the GNAC's all-time point producer, scoring the game's only goal in a 1-0 shutout of Western Oregon Wednesday. The Falcons established a GNAC record for most consecutive wins in the game with their 14th straight victory, breaking the old record of 13 they set in 2004. Martinez is also the GNAC career leader with 47 goals. . .Wymer had two goals, including the game-winner in a 1-0 shutout of Central Washington, as she became the fourth member of the GNAC 100-point club, joining Martinez, Lovejoy and Seattle's Nichole Savaugau (1999-02), who have 113, 111 and 110, respectively. She is also the fourth player in Redhawk history to reach the 100-point level. . .Hibbard has had four sensational games in a row as the Wolves have won three of their last four to rebound from a 0-9-2 start. In a 1-0 loss to nationally second-ranked Seattle Pacific, she caught players from behind at least half a dozen times and in a shutout win over Northwest Nazarene she never got beat and helped prevent the Crusaders from getting off a threatening shot off all day. "Erica has played an amazing role in helping this young team come together," WOU coach Rod Fretz said. "She is a leader on and off the field and will do what is necessary to bring success to our team."

Week of Oct. 15-21: Madison Collins, Seattle University (D, 5-4, Jr., Boise, ID) led the Redhawk defense, which allowed just five shots in recording their 11th and 12th shutouts of the season. She also had an assist on one of SU's four goals in Sunday's win over Saint Martin's. The Redhawks have allowed just seven goals this season in earning a No. 11 national ranking. "Madison has been a key leader for our defense and is one of our most valuable players," SU coach Julie Woodward said.

Week of Oct. 22-28: Meredith Teague, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-4, Jr., Redmond, WA – Bellevue Christian) scored one goal and had two assists as she was involved in all the non-penalty kick goals in 2-0 wins over Seattle University and Montana State Billings as the Falcons clinched their fifth GNAC title in the past six years. The two assists were her 12th and 13th of the year, a total surpassed by just one player in GNAC history, Seattle's Ashley Porter who has had 14 each of the past three years.

Week of Oct. 29-Nov. 4: Katie Warner, Western Washington (D, 5-8, Jr., Burlington, WA – Burlington-Edison) led a Viking defense that allowed just 15 total shots, including eight on goal, in wins over Western Oregon (2-0) and Central Washington (2-1). WWU closed out its season by winning its final four games, outscoring its opponents 9-1.

Week of Aug. 25-31: Melinda Ingalls, Western Oregon (M, 5-6, Fr., Wilsonville, Ore. - Wilsonville) and Kari Foreman, Montana State Billings (M/F, 5-5, So., Lakewood, CO - Bear Creek HS). . .Ingalls scored three of the Wolves' four goals in victories against Humboldt State (2-1 OT) and Corban College (2-0). She scored all three goals on only four shot attempts. Both her goals against Corban College came in the second half of play to snap a scoreless deadlock. "Melinda was absolutely awesome in the Corban game, and gave us our early lead in the win over Humboldt State on Thursday," WOU coach Rod Fretz said. . . Foreman scored two goals, including the game-winner in a 3-0 victory against Eastern New Mexico. She also scored the equalizing goal in the second half of a 2-1 overtime victory over Fort Lewis on Saturday. Fort Lewis was a NCAA tournament qualifier last year

Week of Sept. 1-7: Emily Frankland, Western Washington (F, 5-4, So., Sammamish, WA – Skyline) and Amanda Johnson, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-7, So., Duvall, WA – Cedercrest). . .Frankland contributed to all four Viking goals in 2-0 and 2-1 wins over No. 13 ranked Cal State Dominguez and Sonoma State. She scored one goal and earned an assist on the game-winning goal against the Toros and scored the game-winning goal in the 87 th minute and assisted on WWU's first goal against Sonoma. . .Johnson scored three goals, including two game-winners, and had two assists in leading Seattle Pacific to home wins over No. 13 CSUDH (3-2 in overtime) and 16 th ranked Chico State (3-0). Johnson launched 13 shots in the two contests.

Week of Sept. 8-14: Amber Easterbrook, Central Washington (GK, 5-5, Jr., Kent, WA - Kentwood) allowed just one goal and had 16 saves in 310 minutes as the Wildcats earned one victory and a pair of draws on a three-game road trip to California. She recorded her 11 th and 12 th career shutouts against San Francisco State and Notre Dame de Namur, respectively, to establish a CWU school record. She made a point-blank save inside of 12 yards late in overtime against San Francisco State and also had two very good saves to preserve the shutout against Monterey Bay. In her last five games, she has allowed just one goal in 490 minutes, posting four shutouts and leading the Wildcats to a 3-0-2 record.

Week of Sept. 15-21: Claire Morgan, Western Washington (F, 5-7, So., Bellingham, WA) scored the game-winning goal in a pair of shutout victories, including a 1-0 home win against Seattle Pacific Saturday which snapped the Falcons 27-game regular-season unbeaten streak (26 wins, 1 tie). Morgan has had the GWG in three consecutive games and has scored in five consecutive contests. She leads the conference in goals with six and is tied in points with 13.

Week of Sept. 22-28: Lynde Clarke, Central Washington (M, 5-3, Sr., Albuquerque, NM) scored three goals as the Wildcats, who at 5-2-2 are off to their best nine-game start since 2000 when they were 6-3, shut out Montana State Billings 2-0 and Northwest Nazarene 4-0. Clarke scored CWU's second goal against MSUB and its first two goals against the Crusaders.

Week of Sept. 29-Oct. 5: Kari Foreman, Montana State Billings (M/F, 5-5, So., Lakewood, CO - Bear Creek) and Jill Jensen, Saint Martin's (F, 5-6, So., Puyallup, WA – Emerald Ridge). . .Foreman scored the game-tying goal with just 19 seconds left in regulation and then got the game-winner with just 23 seconds remaining in the first overtime period in Thursday's 3-2 win against Saint Martin's as the Yellowjackets won the first of two conference home games. On the season, Foreman leads MSUB with four goals, including a pair of game-winners. . .Jensen had five goals. In Thursday's 3-2 loss at MSUB, she staked the Saints to an early 2-0 lead. She then scored three times in Saturday's 5-0 win at Northwest Nazarene, recording the first hat trick in SMU's brief soccer history. Jensen currently leads the GNAC in both goals (9) and points (23).

Week of Oct. 6-12: Lucy Miller, Western Washington (F, 5-2, Jr., Palisades, CA) and Meredith Teague, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-4, Sr., Redmond, WA – Bellevue Christian) each scored three goals to lead their respective teams to wins. . .Miller recorded the second hat-trick in the conference this season, scoring three times and also earning an assist in a 5-0 shutout of Northwest Nazarene. Her seven points in the match established a new GNAC record for conference games and was one off the record for all games. . .Teague scored two goals, including the game-winner, in a 4-1 win against Saint Martin's and also had the game-winner in a 4-0 shutout of Western Oregon.

Week of Oct. 13-19: Kelly Irving, Western Washington (M, 5-6, Jr., Gig Harbor, WA) scored the Vikings' only goal in a 1-1 draw at Seattle Pacific and had the game-winning goal in a 3-1 win at Saint Martin's as the Vikings extended their unbeaten streak to nine, their longest since winning 38 in a row between 1982 and 1984, to stay three points ahead of the Falcons in the conference race. "Her work rate and playmaking gave us a big lift in both games," WWU coach Travis Connell said.

Week of Oct. 20-26: Jocelyn Charette, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-10, Jr., Lakewood, WA – Curtis) had a goal and assist to lead the Falcons to a 2-0 shutout of Central Washington. Both goals came in the opening three minutes. She broke free with a through pass from Mallorie Gerstmann and sent a 15-yard strike into the goal at 1:20 earning her fifth goal of the season. Charette then set up the second goal just 78 seconds later distributing a pass into the goalmouth where Janae Godoy directed it into the goal from eight yards out at 2:38. "Jocelyn was the complete package today, from beginning to end," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "She came out and took it upon herself to make a huge difference. She created some great chances for herself and others that were just awesome."

Week of Oct. 27-Nov. 2: Meredith Teague, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-4, Sr., Redmond, WA – Bellevue Christian) scored three goals in a pair of victories, including the game-winner in a 5-2 home victory against Cal State L.A. Teague also recorded her 32 nd career assist. The seven points moved her into a tie for 10 th in GNAC career scoring with SPU's Megan Lienhard (2002-05). Both players have 78 points.

Week of Nov. 3-9: Ashley Engel, Saint Martin's (GK, 5-9, Fr., Burien, WA - Kennedy) and Janae Godoy, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-4, Jr., Yakima, WA – West Valley). . . Engel was credited with a GNAC-season high 14 saves, including two outstanding stops in overtime, as the Saints earned a 1-1 tie with league champion Western Washington on Thursday. She punched a shot from 23 yards by Kasey Hostetler over the crossbar in the 95th minute and dove to her left to stop a one-on-one opportunity from 18 yards by Lucy Miller in the 109th minute. She also thwarted two Viking scoring opportunities with five minutes left in regulation. Engel made nine more saves Sunday in a 3-1 loss to Division I Seattle University. . .Godoy scored three of the Falcons' five goals in wins over Western Oregon and Montana State Billings.

Week of Aug. 24-30 and Aug. 31-Sept. 6: Jill Webb, Saint Martin's (F, 5-6, Jr., Puyallup, WA – Emerald Ridge) tallied five points as the Saints earned a split of two home contests during the Week of Aug. 24-30. She had both of SMU's goals in a 3-2 loss to San Francisco State, then had an assist on the game-winning goal in a 1-0 win over Cal State Monterey Bay. . .During the Week of Aug. 31-Sept. 6, Webb scored three goals in wins over Cal State East Bay and previously unbeaten Sonoma State. Her goal against Sonoma in the 69th minute snapped a 1-1 tie handing the Seawolves their first loss in four contests. It was the second straight Player-of-the-Week award for Webb, who has led her team to a seventh place West Regional ranking in the NSCAA Division II coaches poll.

Week of Sept. 7-14: Samantha Boehm, Montana State Billings (D, 5-7, Jr., Wilsonville, OR) anchored a back line which allowed just four shots on goal in a pair of contests at the University of Mary Invitational, including a 4-0 win over Minnesota Crookston and a 1-1 tie with the University of Mary. MSUB outshot its two opponents 30-17, including an 18-4 advantage in shots on goal as it improved to 3-2-1 on the season.

Week of Sept. 14-20: Taylor Sawyer, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-5, Fr., Gig Harbor, WA – North Mason) and Autumn Yturbe, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-6, Fr., Buhl, ID). . .Sawyer and fellow freshman Taylor Lundquist (San Jose, CA) have anchored SPU's defense which has posted eight shutouts including a pair of 3-0 conference wins against Western Oregon and Saint Martin's Thursday and Saturday. "Taylor Sawyer and Taylor Lundquist have been absolutely outstanding as the centerbacks and anchors of our back line," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "Game in and game out, they've come with a tremendous amount of determination and pride to keep our opponent out of our net." . .Yturbe, who had 166 goals in her prep career, scored a pair of goals rallying Northwest Nazarene from a 2-0 deficit in a 4-3 win over Montana State Billings as the Crusaders snapped a 16-game GNAC losing streak and an 18-game GNAC winless streak. NNU bettered its goal total for the entire 2008 conference season when it found the net just three times in 12 contests. "Autumn has been battling some injuries and we're excited to finally have her back at full strength," NNU coach Jamie Lindvall said.

Week of Sept. 21-27: Taylor Lundquist, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-8, Fr., San Jose, CA – Willow Glen) and Kari Foreman, Montana State Billings (M, 5-5, Jr., Lakewood, CO – Bear Creek). . .Lundquist, who plays the center back position, led the Falcons to a 2-0 win over Central Washington as SPU did not allow a shot on goal in recording its 10 th straight shutout. "Taylor has been phenomenal this season and has been an absolute key to our success," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "She was tremendous against Central Washington. She read the game well, was wonderful in the air, great with the ball and dominated defensively," . .Foreman scored MSUB's game-winning goals in wins over Western Oregon and Saint Martin's and also added an assist against the Saints. Her goal in the 102 nd minute snapped a 1-1 tie against the Wolves. She played all 192 minutes in the two games and all five of her shots were "on goal."

Week of Sept. 28-Oct. 4: Emily Frankland, Western Washington (F, 5-4, Jr., Sammamish, WA – Skyline) had a pair of goals and an assist leading the Vikings to wins over Northwest Nazarene and Seattle Pacific. She scored a second-half goal to snap a scoreless tie in a 2-0 win at Northwest Nazarene. She then scored a goal in the fifth minute to end Seattle Pacific's 11-game shutout streak and later added an assist on a goal by Molly Shannon as the Vikings snapped SPU's 27-game unbeaten streak. "Emily really asserted herself," WWU coach Travis Connell said. "Her energy and execution were big factors in both of our victories."

Week of Oct. 5-11: Brittney Rigrup, Western Oregon (GK, 5-7, Jr., Renton, WA - Hazen) had 10 saves in the Wolves' 2-0 road win at Central Washington. Rigrup faced a total of 22 shots in recording her first shutout of the season. Her save total was also the second most in the conference this fall. She is only the seventh goalkeeper in GNAC history to record 10 or more saves while posting a shutout. That feat has been accomplished a total of 10 times. "Brittney had a couple of brilliant diving saves, one of which clearly got just enough of the ball to tip it into the crossbar," WOU coach Rod Fretz said. "She definitely came to play against Central and established that clearly from the start. She was one of the primary reasons we kept Central off the board."

Week of Oct. 12-18: Kelly Irving, Western Washington (M, 5-6, Sr., Gig Harbor, WA) had the game-winning goal in a 2-0 victory at Grand Canyon, then earned assists on the GWGs in 2-0 and 1-0 wins at Central Washington and Western Oregon as the Vikings won three road contests. The assists were Irving's league-leading sixth and seventh of the season and the 24th and 25th of her career, moving her into a tie for seventh place on the GNAC all-time career assist list. She is also just one assist short of equaling the Western Washington school record of 26 set by Cindy Gordon between 1981 and 1984.

Week of Oct. 19-25: Jocelyn Charette, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-10, Sr., Lakewood, WA – Curtis) had a hat-trick – her second of the season and third of her career - in a 4-0 home win against Montana State Billings. She also had three of Seattle Pacific's eight shots on goal in Saturday's 2-0 loss at Cal State Dominguez Hills. Charette currently leads the conference in scoring with 26 points (11 goals, 4 assists). Prior to Saturday's contest, she had tallied 14 points (6 goals, 2 assists) in her last three contests.

Week of Oct. 26-Nov. 1: Amy Pate, Central Washington (F, 5-7, So., Federal Way, WA) scored the first two goals in a 3-1 win over Seattle Pacific as the Wildcats earned their first win over the Falcons since 2001. "Amy did a great job of being in position and finishing two good chances at two very critical moments in the game," CWU coach Michael Farrand said. The loss extended Seattle Pacific's winless streak to three games, its longest since the 2002 season, which was its second season of intercollegiate soccer.

Week of Nov. 2-8: Jocelyn Charette, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-10, Sr., Lakewood, WA – Curtis) scored four goals and also had a pair of assists as the Falcons won a pair of games to win their sixth GNAC title by a single point over Western Washington. Charette assisted on the equalizer and scored the game-winner eight minutes into overtime as SPU rallied from a 2-0 deficit to defeat Montana State Billings 3-2 on Thursday. Then on Saturday, she recorded her third hat trick of the season and the fourth of her career in a 6-0 home win against Northwest Nazarene. "Both games were huge in helping us win the GNAC title and in determining our NCAA tournament seeding," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "As a senior she wants to go out on top and she took over at times in both games and just had a great week."

Week of Aug. 30-Sept. 5: Jamie Arthurs, Western Washington (GK, 5-8, So., Richland) and Samantha Sandau, MSU Billings (F, 5-2, Sr., Billings, MT – Billings West). . Arthurs had 17 saves, including 10 in a 2-1 overtime win Thursday at Chico State. She added five more in a scoreless overtime tie with San Francisco State and two in a 1-0 shutout of Humboldt State, finishing the opening week with a 0.29 goals against average and a .944 save percentage. "Jamie continually made the big save we needed at crucial times," WWU coach Travis Connell said. . Sandau had a goal and two assists to lead MSU Billings to two wins and was selected the Most Valuable Player in the eighth annual MSUB Cup. Her goal was the game-winner in a 4-1 win over the University of Mary.

Week of Sept. 6-12: Maddie Dickinson, Seattle Pacific (GK, 5-8, Sr., Vancouver, WA - Skyview) had 11 saves and allowed just one goal in a pair of overtime games as the Falcons played a scoreless tie with BYU-Hawaii before edging Hawaii Pacific 2-1. Dickinson had five saves against the Seaside after making six stops against BYU-Hawaii in earning her 22nd career shutout. "Maddie was awesome," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said following the BYU-Hawaii contest. "She came off the line well and had a one-versus-one save to stop a goal."

Week of Sept. 13-19: Molly Shannon, Western Washington (F, 5-10, Sr., Bellingham, WA) and Brittany Langdon, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-10, So., Irvine, CA – Northwood). . Shannon scored eight points, scoring three goals and adding two assists in home wins over Western Oregon and Saint Martin's. She converted on all three of her shot attempts in the two contests after going 0 for 7 in her previous four games. . Langdon scored the game-winning goals in the Falcons' 3-0 win over MSU Billings and 2-0 win at Northwest Nazarene. SPU's win over MSUB extended its unbeaten streak at Interbay Stadium to 45 games (42-0-3).

Week of Sept. 20-26: Serena Tomaso, Central Washington (F, 5-4, Jr., Enumclaw, WA) and Sabrina Grandke-Bawab, MSU Billings (GK, 5-8, Fr., Kirkland, WA - Juanita). . Tomaso had 10 points, participating in all but one of CWU's goals as the Wildcats earned their first two wins of the season defeating Western Oregon 3-0 and Saint Martin's 4-2. She had one goal and a pair of assists against the Wolves and three goals against the Saints. "Her goals were big time, especially the first one against (Saint Martin's)," CWU coach Michael Farrand said. . Grandke-Bawab recorded 11 saves in 1-0 road wins at Simon Fraser and at 20 th ranked Western Washington. "Sabrina had as good a week as I have seen from a freshman goalkeeper," MSUB coach Don Trentham said. "She played mistake free goalkeeping for 180 minutes and looked very comfortable in the process. Her positioning was spot on for every shot she faced, she didn't give up any rebounds, dealt excellently with all crosses and restarts and did a great job commanding her back four."

Week of Sept. 27-Oct. 3: Claire Morgan, Western Washington (F, 5-7, Sr., Bellingham, WA) figured in all four of the Vikings goals in wins over nationally fifth-ranked Seattle Pacific (1-0) and Central Washington (3-0). She had an assist on the game-winning goal Thursday against SPU, snapping the Falcons' 45-game home unbeaten streak, then had two goals, including the game-winner, and an assist as WWU scored three times in the second half to beat Central Washington. On the season, Morgan leads the GNAC in points (18) and assists (6) and is tied for the conference lead in goals (6). She is the GNAC active career leader in assists with 25 and ranks 16 th all-time in career points (71), 15 h in goals (23) and eighth in assists.

Week of Oct. 4-10: Kellie Zakrzewski, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-4, Fr., Cheney, WA) had a pair of goals to lead Seattle Pacific to a 5-1 win over Central Washington as the Falcons moved into a tie for first-place with Western Washington at the midway point of the conference season. Zakrzewski currently is tied for third in the GNAC in goals scored with five. She is the leader in conference games, also with five. Seattle Pacific is off to an 8-1-2 start and is tied for first place with Western Washington at the midway point of the conference season with a 5-1-1 record.

Week of Oct. 11-17: Megan Lindsay, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-7, So., Spokane, WA – Gonzaga Prep) scored a pair of goals, including the game-winner in overtime, to lead Seattle Pacific to a 2-1 road win at Montana State Billings. On the season, Lindsay is tied for the team lead in goals with five and ranks third for the Falcons in points with 12.

Week of Oct. 18-24: Jill Webb, Saint Martin's (F, 5-6, Sr., Puyallup, WA – Emerald Ridge) and Brittany Langdon, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-10, So., Irvine, CA – Northwood). . .Webb had three goals and a pair of assists as the Saints continued their late season surge with 2-1 and 5-1 wins over MSU Billings and Northwest Nazarene, respectively. Webb leads the GNAC in goals with 11 and points with 29 and is tied for the conference lead in assists with Claire Morgan of Western Washington and Brandi Hamre and Kendall Thoreson of Seattle Pacific. All four players have seven. . .Langdon scored Seattle Pacific's first goal Thursday against Simon Fraser, but more importantly was dominating defensively against both the Clan and Western Washington.

Week of Oct. 25-31: Megan Lindsay, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-7, So., Spokane, WA – Gonzaga Prep) and Kym Witmer, Western Oregon (M, 5-3, So., Newberg, OR). . .Lindsay scored three goals and also had an assist as Seattle Pacific clinched its seventh GNAC title in the last nine years with a pair of 3-0 wins. Lindsay leads the Falcons with 10 goals, including seven in her last five games. . .Witmer, who came into the game with just two points of the season, had six points (two goals, two assists) as Western Oregon scored four second-half goals to beat Central Washington 4-0 Saturday in Monmouth. WOU scored more than one-third (4 of 11) of its season conference-game goal total in the half.

Week of Nov. 1-7: Whitney Siler, Montana State Billings (D, 5-9, Fr., Monroe, WA) scored the game-winning goal in MSUB's 1-0 home win against Northwest Nazarene. Siler, who has six points on the season (1 goal, 4 assists) also led the Yellowjacket defense that didn't allow a shot on goal in recording its eighth shutout of the season. "Whitney was superb in the back line (Saturday)," MSUB coach Don Trentham said. "She was able to keep the ball in front of her all game long and helped end any threat NNU posed on our half of the pitch. Her goal was one of the best goals I've ever seen scored in my coaching career."

Week of Aug. 29-Sept. 4: Heidi Greenback, MSU Billings (F, 5-7, So., Woodinville, WA) and Jamie Arthurs, Western Washington (GK, 5-8, Jr., Richland, WA). . .Greenback had three goals and an assist leading the Yellowjackets to a pair of shutout wins in the MSU Billings Cup and earning Most Valuable Player honors. She scored MSUB's second goal in a 2-0 win over Colorado Christian and had two goals and an assist in a 3-0 shutout of Southwest Minnesota State. . .Arthurs had 12 saves as the Vikings, who were outshot 36-18, battled nationally second-ranked UC San Diego and Chico State to a pair of overtime scoreless draws. The shutouts were the 13th and 14th in Arthurs' career moving her into a tie for 10th place on the GNAC all-time shutout list.

Week of Sept. 5-11: Brandi Hamre, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-7, Sr., Bremerton, WA – Central Kitsap) scored two goals and also had an assist as the Falcons outscored Notre Dame de Namur and Nebraska-Omaha by a combined margin of 11-1. "Brandi was just tremendous in both games," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "Not only did she have the game winner against NDNU but her goal opened the game up on Nebraska-Omaha. Brandi did so many things that made a difference for us, her organization of our midfield, her ball winning, and leadership overall was just fantastic."

Week of Sept. 12-18: Jaucelyn Richter, MSU Billings (F, 5-5, Jr., Billings, MT) and Taylor Sawyer, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-5, Jr., Gig Harbor, WA – North Mason). . .Richter scored all three Yellowjacket goals in their 3-1 road win Thursday at Saint Martin's and also contributed to their 1-1 draw at Western Oregon Saturday. She took 11 shots in the two contests and nine were "on-goal". "Jaucelyn had a tremendous weekend," MSUB interim coach Wojtek Krakowiak said. "She was in all the right places Thursday and she made some very good plays Saturday that led to other chances." . .Sawyer led SPU's defense that posted road shutouts at Western Washington and Simon Fraser. She also scored SPU's final goal against the Clan. "Taylor is really on top of her game," Falcon coach Chuck Sekyra said. "She is a leader in our back line, has been great with the ball and has been making some outstanding defensive plays."

Week of Sept. 19-25: Carson McKole, Central Washington (M, 5-2, Jr., Oak Harbor, WA) earned an assist on the Wildcats' first goal in Thursday's 2-1 win at Western Oregon, then scored the game-winner in a 1-0 victory Sunday at Saint Martin's as the Wildcats, who are off to their best eight-game start since 2008, improved to 4-2-2. McKole has contributed to six of CWU's nine goals this season, scoring four and assisting on two others. Her Sunday goal was assisted by Amy Pate and Brittany Franks. "Amy and Brittany made quality passes and Carson added another fantastic goal," CWU coach Michael Farrand said.

Week of Sept. 26-Oct. 2: Whitney Siler, Montana State Billings (D, 5-9, So., Monroe, WA) and Justina MacDowell, Western Washington (M, 5-5, Sr., Bellevue, WA – Sammamish). . .Siler scored the game-winning goal in MSUB's 1-0 upset of 14th-ranked Seattle Pacific and was spectacular defensively as the Yellowjackets earned a win and 1-1 draw with Central Washington on a two-game road trip. "Whitney had a tremendous weekend," MSUB interim coach Wojceich Krakowiak said. "Her goal against SPU was good, but her defensive play was even better. She did a great job on helping limit quality shots and made numerous plays to help preserve the shutout. Against Central Washington she did a terrific job of shutting down their attacks and limiting their opportunities for open looks at the goal." . .MacDowell scored three goals, including two game-winners in wins against Western Oregon and Saint Martin's as the Vikings pulled to within three points of first-place Seattle Pacific.

Week of Oct. 3-9: Jennifer Brookshire, Montana State Billings (MF, 5-2, So., Ventura, CA) led the Yellowjackets to an easy 6-1 victory over Northwest Nazarene to help MSUB remain unbeaten in conference play. Brookshire scored two goals in her only two shots of the match.

Week of Oct. 10-16: Megan Lindsay, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-7, Jr., Spokane, WA – Gonzaga Prep) had three goals including the game-winners in 4-0 and 3-0 home wins against Simon Fraser and Western Washington. Lindsay leads the conference in goals (8 including four game-winners) and points (20) and has scored seven goals in SPU's last four games. She also ranks fourth in GNAC history in points per game (1.34) with 63 in 47 contests. "(She was) Megan Lindsay being Megan Lindsay," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "She is such a talented, hard working player who wants to take over and make a difference in every game. I love her approach and attitude and she is making a difference."

Week of Oct. 17-23: Taylor Sawyer, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-5, Jr., Gig Harbor, WA - North Mason) and Carson McKole, Central Washington (M, 5-2, Jr., Oak Harbor, WA). . Sawyer contributed to a pair of shutouts as the Falcons moved to within one win of clinching their third straight conference title with victories at Saint Martin's and Western Oregon. SPU outshot the Saints and Wolves by a combined margin of 47-14 forcing Brooke Yokers to make just five saves. "She (Sawyer) had a wonderful week, organizing our back line, reading the run of play, breaking up our opponents ideas and playing so well," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. . McKole scored two goals increasing her season point total to 19 points (8 goals, 3 assists) as the Wildcats won two games to set a school-record for most GNAC victories with seven. The two wins also assured CWU of only its second .500 season in the 11-year history of the conference. Her goal total, which includes four game-winners, is the highest by a Wildcat player since 2007 and her point total is the highest for a CWU player since 2000. McKole currently leads the conference in goals per game (0.57) and ranks second in points per game (1.36). She also is tied for the conference lead in game-winning goals with four.

Week of Oct. 24-30: Brandi Hamre, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-7, Sr., Bremerton, WA – Central Kitsap) had a pair of goals including her third game-winner of the season in SPU's 2-1 win over Northwest Nazarene, clinching the Falcons' their third straight conference title and their ninth consecutive NCAA Division II post-season appearance. Her goal against MSU Billings came into a wind which was approaching 60 miles per hour. She has five goals and three assists this season and now ranks 20 th in GNAC career history with 62 points, including 21 goals and 20 assists.

Week of Oct. 31-Nov. 6: Jaucelyn Richter, MSU Billings (F, 5-5, Jr., Billings, MT – Billings Senior) and Kelsey Jenkins, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-8, Sr., Kent, WA – Kentwood). . Richter had a pair of goals and an assist in MSUB's 4-0 win against Northwest Nazarene increasing her season point total to a GNAC-leading 27. With one season remaining, Richter ranks 18th in GNAC history with 66 career points. . Jenkins also had a pair of goals and an assist in Seattle Pacific's 4-2 win against Central Washington as the Falcons ran their win streak to nine. The assist was her ninth of the year, tying her for the conference lead with Heidi Greenback of MSUB. She also ranks 17th in career assists with 21. "KJ has been our rock as far as possession, rhythm and playmaking," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "She took over on Senior Day (against CWU) and I think we are going to see the same from here on out in the NCAA tournament."

Week of Aug. 25-Sept. 2: Offense - Chelsea Shuman, Montana State Billings (M, 5-2, So., Kalispell, MT - Flathead) scored the game's only goal as the Yellowjackets nipped nationally fifth-ranked Colorado Mines 1-0 Thursday. "Chelsea had an amazing game in the middle and scored a beautiful goal from 25 yards out," MSUB head coach Wojceich Krakowiak said. "She also connected on a lot of passes from our forwards." Defense – Jennifer Larsen, MSU Billings (D, 5-4, Sr., Mesa, AZ – Mountain View) was instrumental in the Yellowjackets' 1-0 shutout of nationally fifth-ranked Colorado Mines Friday. Larsen also scored two goals in a 3-0 shutout of Northern State on Saturday. She was the lone GNAC player to score twice during the opening weekend. "Jennifer was very solid in the back and won a lot of headers," Krakowiak added.

Week of Sept. 3-9: Offense - Jessica Bertucci, Western Washington (F, 5-8, Fr., Bellingham, WA – Sehome) had the game-winning goals as the Vikings swept Hawaii Pacific and Azusa Pacific by identical 2-0 scores. She also had an assist on WWU's clinching goal against APU. Defense – Natalie Harold, Seattle Pacific (GK, 5-3, Jr., Vancouver, WA – Heritage) had five saves, including one to preserve a 1-0 shutout of Azusa Pacific as the Falcons won a pair of home contests. "Natalie took away a sure goal from Azusa with an amazing save," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "Natalie has been strong in the net. We have not given up a lot of chances, but when we have, she has come up huge."

Sept. 10-16: Offense – Heidi Greenback, MSU Billings (F, 5-7, Jr., Woodinville, WA) scored both of the Yellowjackets' goals as MSUB handed Seattle Pacific its first-ever loss at Billings 2-1. She also turned in a solid performance in Saturday's 2-0 shutout of Central Washington as MSUB improved to 6-0 on the season. Defense - Brina Sych, Western Washington (M, 5-6, Jr., Vancouver, WA – Union) played excellent defense from her right back position as the Vikings allowed just one goal in road wins at Western Oregon (2-0) and Saint Martin's (3-1). Sych also contributed offensively, scoring the first goal against the Saints and then earning an assist

Sept. 17-23: Offense - Carson McKole, Central Washington (Sr., Oak Harbor, WA) scored two goals and also had an assist as the Wildcats earned four points during a two-game road trip. McKole had a goal and assist in Thursday's 3-1 win at Simon Fraser, then scored a goal in the 74th minute earning CWU a 1-1 draw at Seattle Pacific. Defense – Jennifer Larsen, Montana State Billings (Sr., Mesa, AZ) helped limit Saint Martin's and Northwest Nazarene to just 18 shots in a pair of 1-0 victories. MSUB goalie Alexandria Johnson needed to make just four saves in recording her fifth and sixth shutouts of the season. Larsen scored MSUB's lone goal against the Saints on a penalty kick.

Sept. 24-30: Offense – Shayla Page, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-6, Fr., Redmond, WA - Eastlake) scored the game-winning goal with 10 seconds remaining in overtime as the Falcons edge Saint Martin's 2-1 Saturday at Interbay Stadium to avoid their third consecutive 1-1 draw. Page has scored goals in three of SPU's final four games, including the first goal in a 2-1 win against Western Washington on Sept. 19 and their lone goal in Thursday's 1-1 draw with Western Oregon. Defense – Ashton Griffen, Western Washington (M, 5-4, Jr., Duvall, WA – Cedarcrest) had a pair of assists and also contributed to two more home shutouts while playing right back and center mid. The Vikings have outscored their opponents 17-0 in five home games this fall and have posted 11 consecutive home shutouts dating back to a 1-0 win over Central Washington on Sept. 17, 2011. "Ashton's work ethic and fitness level is fantastic," WWU coach Travis Connell said. "This past weekend she covered so much ground, tirelessly closing down the ball, dominating in the air and winning knockdowns. Her commitment to the team was inspiring."

Week of Oct. 1-7: Offense – Lindsay Bauman, Western Oregon (M, 5-4, Sr., Portland, OR) contributed to all three goals as the Wolves earned a pair of shutout victories, blanking Saint Martin's 2-0 at home, then beating Montana State Billings 1-0 in Billings. Bauman scored one goal and earned an assist on the other against the Saints, then scored the game-winning goal against MSUB with less than two minutes remaining in overtime as she collected the ball about 15 yards from the goal and fired a shot over the arms of MSUB keeper Alexandria Johnson and into the net. "Lindsay had an incredible strike to give us the win," WOU coach Steve Ancheta said. Defense – Jamie Arthurs, Western Washington (5-8, Sr., Richland, WA) had six saves in recording wins against Simon Fraser and Central Washington increasing her career shutout total to a GNAC and school-record 32. Arthurs has nine shutouts this season including five in a row and hasn't allowed a goal over the past 450 minutes, 15 seconds. She currently leads the conference in goals against average (0.33), save percentage (.862) and shutouts.

Week of Oct. 8-14: Offense – Kristin Maris, Western Washington (F, 5-9, Jr. Issaquah, WA) scored the game-winning goal as the Vikings extended their win streak to seven, all by shutouts, and snapped Western Oregon's win streak at four with a 2-0 victory. Maris opened the scoring in the 56th minute with her team-leading seventh goal of the year and her third game-winner, taking a deflected pass from Catherine Miles with her back to the goal, turning and firing a shot from 28 yards that hit the crossbar and went in. Maris also played a key role in Thursday's 1-0 win against Saint Martin's.

Defense – Emma Holm, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-4, Fr., Kirkland, WA – Lake Washington) led the Falcons, who are unbeaten in their last eight games (6-0-2) to two victories, a 4-1 win against Northwest Nazarene and a 3-0 shutout of MSU Billings. "Emma was incredible this week," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "I thought that she was one of the top three players on the field in both games against Nazarene and Billings. She was steady and made some game-changing plays."

Week of Oct. 15-21: Offense - Megan Lindsay, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-7, Sr., Spokane, WA – Gonzaga Prep) scored four goals leading the Falcons to 4-2 and 2-0 wins over Saint Martin's and Western Oregon, respectively, as SPU ran its win streak to six games and its unbeaten streak to 10. Lindsay currently leads the GNAC in scoring with 10 goals and 24 points and needs one more point to become the sixth player in GNAC history to score 100 or more career points. "Megan is just being Megan," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "She is scoring goals in so many different ways right now." Defense – Jamie Arthur, Western Washington (GK, 5-8, Sr., Richland, WA) had six saves in lowering her national-leading goals against average to 0.25 as the Vikings extended their consecutive shutout streak to nine with a pair of 2-0 wins against Montana State Billings and Northwest Nazarene. Arthur's streak of 810 minutes, 15 seconds without allowing a goal is the fourth longest team streak and third longest individual streak in GNAC history. Arthur has 13 shutouts this season, tying the GNAC single-season record set by Kaitlyn Jackson of Seattle University in 2007. Her nine consecutive shutouts also ties a GNAC record set by Maddie Dickinson during the final stages of the 2008 season and early in the 2009 campaign. Dickinson's streak extended over 11 games, including two in which she split the goal-keeping duties and therefore did not get credit for a shutout.

Week of Oct. 22-28: Offense - Riley Dopps, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-5, So., Port Orchard, WA – South Kitsap) scored a pair of goals and also had an assist as the Falcons extended their unbeaten streak to 13 games and their win streak to nine. She scored SPU's first two goals in its 4-0 shutout of Simon Fraser then earned an assist on Heather Young's game-winning goal in a 1-0 defeat of Western Washington, snapping the Vikings' 10-game win streak. On the season, Dopps ranks fourth on her team in scoring with 11 points (4 goals, 3 assist). "Riley is really starting to turn her play up a notch," SPU coach Chuck Sekyra said. "She is really fun to watch right now as she is making a difference in every game." Defense – Josie Graybeal, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-7, Jr., Gig Harbor, WA) is the leader of the Falcon back line and was the catalyst for a pair of shutouts, SPU's sixth and seventh of the season. "Josie had a great week, organizing our back line, winning balls in the air and on the ground, starting our attack and just being a great defender," Sekyra said.

Week of Sept. 2-8: Offense – Laura Moore, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-3, So., Kent, WA – Kentwood) scored the Falcons' lone goal in a tough 2-1 loss to No. 3 UC San Diego on Thursday, and scored again on Saturday as SPU shut out Point Loma Nazarene 3-0. "Laura was fantastic in both games getting our team off to early leads," said head coach Chuck Sekyra, adding, "two goals in two games is no easy task on the road against those two programs." Defense – Ashton Griffen, Western Washington (M, 5-4, Sr., Duvall, WA – Cedarcrest) played 90 minutes of solid defense against UC San Diego to help the Vikings to a 1-0 upset of the No. 3 team in the country on Saturday. Griffen was instrumental in maintaining organization for 12th-ranked WWU, as head coach Travis Connell commented, "it looked like there were two of her out there."

Week of Sept. 9-15: Offense – Kelli Bannerman, Saint Martin's (F, 5-5, Fr., Ferndale, WA – Ferndale) scored a hat trick off the bench to help the Saints to their first win of 2013, a 4-0 road victory over Holy Names. Bannerman entered the game as a substitute in the first half, and was extremely efficient, needing just four shots – all of which were on target – to tally three goals. Defense – Kelsey Lindsey, WOU (GK, 5-5, Jr., Kula, Maui – Kamehameha Maui) made seven saves on 15 shots faced in 90 minutes between the posts en route to her first career shutout in the Wolves 2-0 victory over Holy Names. Lindsey's performance helped WOU remain undefeated on the season, as the Wolves are 2-0-2 and have allowed just one goal thus far in 2013.

Week of Sept. 16-22: Offense – Catherine Miles, Western Washington (F/M, 5-7, So., Anacortes, WA – Anacortes) scored twice and provided an assist as the No. 4 Vikings cruised to a pair of road victories over Northwest Nazarene and Montana State Billings. On Thursday, Miles dished a pass to Stephanie Hamilton (F/M, 5-2, So., Orting, WA – Bellarmine Prep) as the middle part of a three-player connection that resulted in the Vikings' third and final goal in a solid 3-0 victory over NNU. The sophomore striker stepped up on Saturday, notching a pair of goals in Billings, Mont. to help WWU down the Yellowjackets 4-1. "Catherine makes an impact in every game with her work rate, athleticism, and composure when finishing chances in front of the goal," WWU head coach Travis Connell said. Defense – Shayla Page, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-6, So., Redmond, WA – Eastlake) played stellar defense as the Falcons increased their winning streak to five and won their first two GNAC games of 2013. Since SPU lost to UCSD in its first game of the season, the Falcons have not allowed a goal in a span of 450 shutout minutes. "Shayla played a huge role in our shutouts and defensive success with her ability to lock down our opponents' top players, dominate in the air and make plays," Falcon head coach Chuck Sekyra commented regarding Page's performance in last week's 1-0 wins over Western Oregon and Saint Martin's.

Week of Sept. 23-29: Offense – Savanna Moorehouse, Central Washington (M, 5-11, Jr., Bonney Lake, WA – Bonney Lake) scored three goals, none more important than the game-tying goal against MSU Billings in the 71st minute Saturday. The goal set up Lauren Duty's game-winner in the first period of overtime, and CWU picked up six points with a pair of victories. Moorehouse received assists from GNAC Defensive Player of the Week Tarah Duty on all three of her goals. "Savanna continues to demonstrate her importance to us as our offensive midfielder," said head coach Michael Farrand. "During the past two weeks she has had an impact in every game."
Defense – Tarah Duty, Central Washington (D, 5-4, Sr., Black Diamond, WA – Tahoma) not only anchored a back line that allowed just two goals for more than 180 minutes last week, but she also contributed to the Wildcats' offensive success as she distributed three assists on Thursday and two more on Saturday. Her effort helped CWU capture two wins and the Wildcats now sit in third place in the GNAC standings with nine points. "Tarah is one of the top defenders in the conference and region," said Farrand, adding, "she contributed to five of our six goals, quite an accomplishment from an outside defender."

Week of Sept. 30 – Oct. 6: Offense – Makana Pundyke, Western Oregon (M/F, 5-5, So., Kula, HI – Kamehameha Maui) posted eight points scoring three goals and adding two assists as she led the GNAC in both categories to earn Red Lion Offensive Player of the Week honors. Pundyke got involved on the first three goals in WOU's 4-0 performance against NNU on Thursday, scoring the first and third while assisting on the second. On Saturday, the sophomore forward assisted on a goal in the third minute, then drilled home the tally that sealed a 2-0 victory over MSU Billings in the 58th. Defense – Brina Sych, Western Washington (D, 5-6, Sr., Vancouver, WA – Union) led a defensive effort that helped the No. 2 Vikings go 2-0 and remain undefeated. In addition to organizing WWU's back line against rival SPU on Thursday, the senior defender scored the Vikings' first goal on her only shot of the week in the 29th minute to set the tone early. Sych followed her performance on Thursday with an equally impressive defensive effort on Saturday that led to WWU's 2-0 shutout of a CWU team that had won three games in a row. "Brina contributed on both sides of the ball," WWU head coach Travis Connell commented, adding, "she was dependable when defending and dangerous getting forward in the attack."

Week of Oct. 7-13: Offense – Heidi Greenback, MSU Billings (F, 5-7, Sr., Woodinville, WA - Woodinville) scored with 17 seconds left in regulation on Thursday to save the day as MSU Billings battled Northwest Nazarene to a 1-1 overtime draw. Two days later, Greenback again evened the score for the Yellowjackets, this time with a header goal in the 40th minute against Saint Martin's. MSU Billings scored again in the second half to collect the win, and the Yellowjackets picked up four total points. Defense – Argia Phillips, Northwest Nazarene (GK, 5-7, So., Meridian, ID - Meridian) made seven saves against MSU Billings on Thursday and added a dozen more against WOU on Saturday as she helped NNU collect two hard-earned points with a pair of 1-1 draws. Perhaps the highlight of Phillips' work came on Saturday, when she made two diving saves in the opening six minutes of the game, and then followed with another full-extension effort to deny a shot early into the second half. "Argia had the best game I've seen her have all year," NNU head coach Mary Trigg commented regarding Phillips' performance against WOU on Saturday.

Week of Oct. 14-20: Offense – Maddie Krauss, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-4, Fr., Lake Oswego - Lakeridge) scored two goals in 32 seconds in SPU's 3-0 road victory over Montana State Billings Saturday. The freshman forward was instrumental in a 2-1 triumph against Northwest Nazarene as well, which helped the Falcons snap a two-game losing skid and maintain a grip in the top-four of the GNAC standings. "Maddie just had a great week," said Falcon head coach Chuck Sekyra. "She is really coming into her own as a freshman. Her two goals in 32 seconds put the game away against MSU Billings, she also had a role in the build-up and creation of our goals against Northwest Nazarene." Defense – Amanda Rose Johnson, Western Oregon (GK, 5-8, Jr., Montrose, CA – New Mexico Highlands) recorded her seventh and eighth shutouts of the season in victories over Simon Fraser and No. 2 Western Washington Thursday and Saturday. She made six critical saves versus Western Washington, and took command on numerous balls in the air throughout WWU's persistent aerial assault. Her effort helped WOU hand WWU its first loss of the season, as she was the first goalkeeper to hold the Vikings scoreless in 2013. The junior has blocked 34 of the 38 shots she has faced this season, and leads the GNAC with eight shutouts.

Week of Oct. 21-27: Offense – Catherine Miles, Western Washington (F, 5-7, So., Anacortes, WA – Anacortes) notched the second hat trick in the GNAC this season and pushed her conference-leading goal total to 12 on Saturday against Northwest Nazarene. The sophomore needed just 23 minutes to complete the hat trick, scoring all three goals in the second half of a 6-0 victory over NNU that kept the Vikings in first place in the GNAC standings. Defense – Morgan Wood, Central Washington (M, 5-5, Sr., Maple Valley, WA – Tacoma CC) played 200 minutes on CWU's back line last week, helping the Wildcats earn four points with a win and a draw. On Thursday, the senior helped shut out Western Oregon, and on Saturday she played 90 minutes and limited Saint Martin's to just three shots on goal in CWU's 2-1 victory. Both wins came on the road.

Week of Oct. 28 – Nov. 3: Offense – Kristin Maris, Western Washington (F, 5-9, Sr., Issaquah, WA - Issaquah) scored three goals, including the game-winner against Central Washington in the 83rd minute. Maris' two goals against Simon Fraser on Saturday gave her 10 on the season, tying her with Saint Martin's forward Kelli Bannerman for second-most in the GNAC behind WWU's Catherine Miles. Defense – McCrea Nirider, Northwest Nazarene (D, 5-4, So., Tacoma, WA - Fife) played 190 minutes, helping NNU to its first GNAC win of the season in a 1-0 overtime triumph over Saint Martin's. Nirider anchored a back line that held the Saints scoreless for 100 minutes, and played the full game on Saturday in a tough 1-0 loss to MSU Billings.

Week of Sept. 1-7: Offense - Alisa Sagdahl, MSU Billings (F, 5-8, Jr., Edmonds, WA – Meadowdale HS) scored the game winning goal against the University of Mary in a 2-1 win. Sagdahl also recorded an assist for the first goal. Defense - Daniele Ortiz, Northwest Nazarene (GK, 5-8, Fr., Sunnyvale, CA – Homestead HS) recorded 13 saves in her first two games with the Crusaders. Ortiz blocked seven shots in her first career shutout in a 0-0 draw against Colorado Christian.

Week of Sept. 8-14: Offense - Offense - Jessica Spang, MSU Billings (M, 5-6, Fr., Billings, MT - Skyview HS) scored a goal and also earned an assist as the Yellowjackets earned a 2-0 road win at the University of Sioux Falls. Defense - Mabinty Kanu, Northwest Nazarene (D, 5-7, Fr., San Jose, CA - Archbishop Mitty HS) blocked two shots on the back line helping preserve a 1-1 tie with Cal State East Bay.

Week of Sept. 15-21: Offense – Offense – Lexi Fesenbek, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-4, Jr., Olympia, WA - Olympia) had one goal and five assists leading the Crusaders to two wins and a tie. She had three assists Monday in a 4-2 non-conference win over Dominican. On Thursday, she set up NNU's first goal and scored the game-winner in a 3-1 victory at Saint Martin's. Then on Saturday, she earned an assist on NNU's goal in a 1-1 draw. Defense – Shayla Page, Seattle Pacific (D, 5-6, Jr., Redmond, WA - Eastlake) sparked the defense and made game-changing plays in a 4-1 win over Simon Fraser Thursday. She also won numerous balls in the air and made timely tackles and interceptions in a 1-1 draw against No. 6 Western Washington Saturday.

Week of Sept. 22-28: Offense – Offense – Hadli Farrand, Central Washington (F, 5-7, Sr., Ellensburg, WA – Ellensburg) scored two goals in the Wildcats win over NNU on Saturday. Farrand scored the equalizer to send the match into overtime and also scored the game winner in double overtime with one second left on the clock. Defense – Brianna Jones, Western Washington (D, 5-8, Sr., Bonney Lake, WA – Bonney Lake) led Western Washington on defense in two close conference wins last week. "Brianna anchored our defense in two home games where we only surrendered a total of three shots-on-goal and she scored the game winner against WOU," head coach Travis Connell said. "Bree showed her leadership this weekend playing stifling defense and contributing to our attack."

Week of Sept. 29-Oct. 5: Offense - Delanee Nilles, Western Washington (M, 5-10, Jr., Poulsbo, WA – North Kitsap HS) scored the game-winning goal in the 96th minute against Simon Fraser as the Vikings (9-0-1) stayed unbeaten with a pair of 1-0 victories versus the Clan and Montana State Billings. Defense - Kayla Lipston, Central Washington (GK, 5-11, Sr., Federal Way, WA – Decatur) and Amanda Rose Johnson, Western Oregon (GK, 5-8, Sr., Montrose, CA – Crescent Valley) each recorded 17 saves in two shutouts last week. Lipston had a career high 11 saves in a 1-0 victory against Seattle Pacific on Thursday while Johnson made 13 stops in a 0-0 draw against the Wildcats.

Week of Oct. 6-12: Offense - Laura Moore, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-3, Jr., Kent, WA/Kentwood) recorded a hat trick in Seattle Pacific's 6-1 win over Northwest Nazarene. "Laura has been putting herself in great spots all season and the ball has been finding the post and the cross bar," SPU head coach Chuck Sekyra said. "We had just talked about having her just keep putting herself in great spots and the ball will start finding the back of the net and there you go. She was dominating on the day." Defense - Krystal Daniels, Montana State Billings (GK, 5-6, Sr., Kent, WA/Peninsula College) made five stops in key situations to help the Yellowjackets earn a tie and a win. Daniels earned her fourth shutout of the season on Saturday in a draw against Seattle Pacific. She faced 20 shots against the Falcons and made some phenomenal saves, including one on a crucial breakaway in the first half that kept the game scoreless.

Week of Oct. 13-19: Offense - Catherine Miles, Western Washington (F, 5-7, Jr., Anacortes, WA – Anacortes) scored three of the Vikings' four goals in a pair of victories, including the match-winner in a 2-1 overtime win Thursday against Montana State Billings. Miles tied the game against MSUB before kicking in the game winner. She also scored WWU's first goal in the team's 2-0 shutout of Northwest Nazarene Saturday. Defense - Kayla Lipston, Central Washington (GK, 5-11, Sr., Federal Way, WA – Decatur) and Katherine Miccile, Western Washington (D, 5-5, Sr., Kent, WA – Kentlake) led defenses which each allowed only one goal in two contests. Lipston made 12 saves on the week and recorded her third straight shutout at home in a scoreless tie against Western Oregon while making three saves in a 3-1 victory over Saint Martin's. Miccile played great 1-on-1 defense in WWU's two wins and was credited with the game-winning assist in Thursday's victory against MSUB.

Week of Oct. 20-26: Offense - Mackenzie Nolte, Central Washington (M, 5-7, Fr., Marysville, WA - Marysville-Pilchuck) scored two goals in a four-point weekend for the Wildcats. Nolte scored the opening goal in the first half against Simon Fraser and later put-in the game-winner in the 2-1 victory. Defense - Haley McFarlane, Montana State Billings (D, 5-7, So., Colorado Springs, CO – Cheyenne Mountain) was strong on the back line in two shutout victories and scored the game-winning goal in Thursday's 2-0 win against Saint Martin's. "She was very solid in the back for us against Saint Martin's and helped hold the Saints to just two shot attempts and only one on goal," head coach Wojtek Krakowiak said. "In Saturday's match she must have won close to 25 headers. She just seems to be everywhere on the defensive end for us. She is one of the main reasons we have had three straight shutouts and seven total this season."

Week of Oct. 27-Nov. 2: Offense - Chelsea Shuman, Montana State Billings (M, 5-2, Sr., Kalispell, MT - Flathead) and Hannah Huesers, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-10, So., Lake Stevens, WA – Lake Stevens) each led their teams to two wins. Shuman scored three goals and added an assist to help earn the Yellowjackets the second seed heading into the conference tournament. "(Shuman) has really stepped up the last few weeks as a captain with her on and off the field performance," head coach Wojtek Krakowiak said ... Huesers, who leads the conference in goals with 13, had both game-winning goals in the Falcons' two shutout victories over Western Oregon and Central Washington. Defense - Chelsea Shuman, Montana State Billings (M, 5-2, Sr., Kalispell, MT - Flathead) and Hannah Huesers, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-10, So., Lake Stevens, WA – Lake Stevens) each led their teams to two wins. Shuman scored three goals and added an assist to help earn the Yellowjackets the second seed heading into the conference tournament. "(Shuman) has really stepped up the last few weeks as a captain with her on and off the field performance," head coach Wojtek Krakowiak said ... Huesers, who leads the conference in goals with 13, had both game-winning goals in the Falcons' two shutout victories over Western Oregon and Central Washington.

Week of -Aug. 31 - Sept. 6: Offense – Jessica Spang (Montana State Billings, M/F, 5-6, So., Billings, Mont. – Skyview): Spang had the game-winning assist in Montana State Billings' 3-2 overtime win over Carroll (Mont.) on Thursday after scoring a goal in the 48th minute to give the Yellowjackets a 2-1 lead. Two of her three shots were on goal as MSU Billings finished the week with a 1-0-1 record. Defense - Shayla Page (Seattle Pacific, D, 5-6, Sr., Redmond, Wash. – Eastlake): Page anchored a Seattle Pacific defense that limited opponents to just 14 shots (five on goal) in a pair of shutout victories. The Falcons limited Humboldt State to seven shots in a 2-0 victory on Thursday and followed that by allowing Chico State seven shots in a 1-0 shutout on Saturday. In addition, Page also had three shots off of set pieces.

She netted the game-winning golden goal in the 109th minute of the Falcons' 3-2 win over Cal State East Bay on Saturday. She also scored in the 28th minute of the match, giving SPU the 2-1 lead. Moore opened the week by assisting on the game-winner in the Falcons' 1-0 shutout at Notre Dame de Namur. Defense - Daniele Ortiz (Northwest Nazarene, GK, 5-8, So., Sunnyvale, Calif. – Homestead): Ortiz finished with 24 saves and two shutouts in three matches. She made 11 saves in the Crusaders' 2-0 shutout of San Francisco State on Monday. She then made five saves in their 3-2 loss at Holy Names on Thursday and eight stops in a 1-0 win at Dominican (Calif.) on Saturday.

Week of Sept. 14-20: Offense - Nicole Nsa (Northwest Nazarene, F, 5-7, Sr., Lakewood, Calif. – Paradise Valley CC): Nsa finished with a the fourth goal in three matches and assisted on two others as the Crusaders closed non-conference play with a 5-0 shutout of Rocky Mountain on Thursday. Her four goals ranks 42nd in Division II and her 10 points ranks 45th. Defense - Priya Sandhu (Simon Fraser, GK, 5-7, So., Surrey, B.C. - Tamanawis): Sandhu made nine saves and earned her third shutout of the season as the Clan battled No. 7 Seattle Pacific to a 0-0 tie. Her tally included a pair of saves on point-blank shots in regulation time. The sophomore has allowed just one goal in four matches and her 0.31 goals against average is 14th in Division II.

Week of Sept. 21-27: Offense - Elise Aylward (Western Washington, F, 5-9, Jr., Renton, Wash. - Lindbergh): Aylward tied the GNAC single-match record for goals as she scored a hat trick in the Vikings' 5-0 rout at Simon Fraser, scoring all three in the first 15 minutes of the match. She also had three shots on goal in Thursday's 3-0 shutout of Saint Martin's. The effort helped lead Western Washington to a 3-0-0 start to league play. Defense - Ana Delgadillo (Concordia, D, 5-6, So., Vancouver, Wash. – Columbia River): Delgadillo anchored a Concordia defense that did not allow a goal in 200 minutes in two matches. Concordia opened on Monday with a 2-0 non-conference shutout over Southern Oregon and then went on the road and battled Montana State Billings to a 0-0 tie on Saturday.

Week of Sept. 28-Oct. 3: Offense – Makana Pundyke (Western Oregon, F, 5-5, Sr., Kula, Hawaii – Kamehameha Maui): Pundyke had her second multi-goal match of the season as she scored the equalizer and game-winner in the Wolves' 2-1 victory over Central Washington. Pundyke leads the Wolves with five goals and 11 points on the season. Defense - Olivia Brock (Concordia, GK, 5-10, Jr., Olympia, Wash. - Olympia): Brock improved to 4-0-1 on the season with two wins. She stopped a career-high 10 shots in the Cavaliers' 3-1 road win at Simon Fraser on Saturday and made three saves against Saint Martin's on Thursday. Brock leads the GNAC with a 0.28 goals against average.

Week of Oct. 4-10: Offense – Hannah Huessers (Seattle Pacific, F, 5-10, Jr., Lake Stevens, Wash. – Lake Stevens): Huesers scored four goals for the Falcons in victories at Concordia and Western Oregon. She assisted on the game-winner and scored an insurance goal in SPU's 3-1 win at Concordia. She then scored all three Seattle Pacific goals on just four shots in the Falcons' 3-1 win at Western Oregon. Defense - Emily Webster (Western Washington, M 5-6, So., Bellingham, Wash. - Sehome): Webster paced a Western Washington defense that allowed just one goal on seven shots on goal as the Vikings won two matches and moved into first place in the GNAC standings. She also assisted on the golden goal in the Vikings' 2-1 overtime win over Central Washington and scored off a set piece in the 2-0 shutout of Montana State Billings.

Week of Oct. 11-17: Offense - Amanda Klep (Concordia, F, 5-5, Fr., Marysville, Wash. – Marysville Pilchuck): Klep scored her first two collegiate goals, both game-winners, in Concordia's 2-0 shutouts over Simon Fraser on Thursday and Western Oregon on Saturday. She entered both matches as a second half substitute. The goals helped Concordia improve to 9-2-2 overall, 6-1-1 GNAC. Defense - Ashley Haden (Western Washington, GK, 5-8, Sr., Brush Prairie, Wash. - Hockinson): Haden did not allow a goal in 166 minutes in goal as the Vikings shut out Central Washington 1-0 and beat Seattle Pacific 3-1. She had four saves in the two matches as the No. 2 Vikings improved to 13-1-0 overall.

Week of Oct. 18-24: Offense - Gabriela Pelogi (Western Washington, F, 5-4, Fr., Federal Way, Wash. – Federal Way): Pelogi scored three goals in two matches as the Vikings clinched a spot in the upcoming GNAC Women's Soccer Tournament.
