WEEK 10 TWO-MINUTE DRILL

All eyes will turn to the Week 10 nightcap that will go a long way to defining the 2019 PFL championship race as PFL co-leaders Drake (4-0 PFL) and San Diego (4-0) square off on the Pacific Coast. Drake last defeated San Diego in 2012 while the Toreros have not lost a PFL home game since 2010. The Battle of Florida will unfold in the day's early action when Stetson (2-2) travels to Jacksonville (0-4). Dayton travels to Morehead State in a matchup of 2-2 PFL squads. Marist returns home with its 2-2 PFL mark to host Butler, which picked up PFL win No. 1 last week. Valparaiso also will look to build on its first win of 2019 when it travels to 2-2 Davidson.

WEEK 10 BREAKDOWNS

► BUTLER AT MARIST, NOON

Fresh off claiming its first PFL win of 2019, Butler will travel to Marist to open Week 10 in the PFL. Marist returns home after an impressive win at Davidson that saw it limit the league's top run offense to under 200 yards for only the third time this season. Butler held the league's top rusher, Jacksonville's Calvin Turner Jr., to 68 yards below his season average en route to its victory in a game that featured 103 rush attempts against only 12 pass attempts. Statistically, this is a contest between near equals with Marist outranking Butler offensively (7th vs. 9th in total offense) while Butler outranks Marist defensively (6th vs. 8th in total defense). BULLDOG TO WATCH: Senior Brad Sznajder hit his stride in the run-oriented outing against Jacksonville, posting season bests in yardage (150) and touchdowns (2) against the Dolphins. RED FOX TO WATCH: Freshman Hunter Cobb enjoyed his outing in a run-oriented contest at Davidson, posting his season bests in yardage (178) and touchdowns (2) against the Wildcats.

► VALPARAISO AT DAVIDSON, 1 P.M.

Valparaiso will look to build on its first victory of 2019 when it meets a Davidson squad seeking to end a two-game home losing streak. 200 has been the magic number for the Davidson offense, with the Wildcats going 1-2 when they fail to rush for 200 yards in a game. That top-ranked Davidson run game (290.2 ypg in PFL play) will meet a Valparaiso defense ranked 6th against the run in PFL play (190.2 ypg). Valparaiso topped the 100-yard rushing mark for just the second time this season, two weeks removed from a season-best 299-yard rushing outing against Dayton, while Davidson has surrendered 150 or more rushing yards in each of its four PFL games this season. CRUSADER TO WATCH: Offense has been at a premium for the Crusaders in 2019 with senior Elias Earley's 112-yard rushing performance against Stetson was just the team's second 100-yard performance either rushing or receiving. WILDCAT TO WATCH: Davidson saw Marist put forth a 232-yard rushing performance – the most by a Wildcats opponent this season. Bryce Perry-Martin, who ranks No. 2 among PFL tacklers with 10.0 tackles for loss, will lead a Davidson defense looking to prevent a repeat.

► STETSON AT JACKSONVILLE, 1 P.M.

The annual Battle for Florida will see Stetson head just up the coast to meet Jacksonville. The Hatters will look to build on its first win in the series, last season, ending a five-game win streak by the Dolphins to start the series. Also, both teams return to action after suffering road losses in Week 9 – Stetson falling at Valparaiso while Jacksonville fell at Butler. The return to warmer climes should help both clubs offenses, which suffered under the cloudy, rainy skies of Indiana last week. Stetson was held to a season-low 277 offensive yards by the Crusaders and the weather, their lowest total by nearly 200 yards this season. Jacksonville fared just as poorly with only 258 offensive yards against the Bulldogs and the weather. HATTER TO WATCH: Stetson signal-caller Gaven DeGillippo will seek a return to form that has seen him average 214.5 passing yards per game in four league outings – third-best among PFL quarterbacks. DOLPHIN TO WATCH: Jacksonville quarterback Calvin Turner Jr. had a rare off day at Butler, finishing with 45 rushing yards, but still enters this week's outing averaging 98 yards per game in his four league contests – best among PFL quarterbacks.

► DAYTON AT MOREHEAD STATE, 1 P.M.

Dayton and Morehead State are both looking to shake off a Week 9 loss in another matchup of league neighbors. The Flyers offense continues to churn out yardage in league play with outings of 466 yards and 467 yards in its back-to-back losses, but the defense surrendered two of its top three yardage totals of the season in those two outings. Morehead State also is fighting defensive woes entering the game, surrendering a 458-yard outing to Drake that was the fifth 400-yard game surrendered by the defense. Meanwhile, the Eagles offense has back-to-back 300-yard passing efforts for the first time in 2019. FLYER TO WATCH: Jake Chisholm is the first Dayton runner with two 100-yard rushing performances this season. His 117 yards against San Diego were the most rushing yards by a Flyer since Week 3 of the campaign (Sean Proffit). EAGLE TO WATCH: Landon Hurst became the first Morehead State receiver to post a 100-yard outing, going for 123 receiving yards at Drake last week. He has 221 receiving yards in Morehead State's previous two outings as the passing game finds its wings.

► DRAKE AT SAN DIEGO, 5 P.M.

The final month of the regular season begins with a game that will prove pivotal in determining the 2019 PFL championship. Drake and San Diego each enter the contest with perfect 4-0 PFL records, and no other PFL team is closer than a 2-2 mark. The Toreros boast the league's No. 1 offense in both scoring (40.0 ppg) and yardage (501.2 ypg) through four PFL outings. Meanwhile, the Bulldogs are the league's No. 1 defense in both scoring (11.8 ppg) and yardage (297.0 ypg) in four PFL games. All that while both teams have faced similar strengths of schedules in league play: Drake's opposition has a combined 6-10 record while San Diego's has a 7-9 mark after four weeks. TORERO TO WATCH: The Toreros will look to rattle Drake freshman quarterback Ian Corwin, who ranks No. 3 in pass efficiency (161.1) in league play. To do so, they will turn to a pass defense that leads the league with seven picks in PFL play. Senior David Tolbert leads that pass defense with six passes defensed, including a pair of interceptions. BULLDOG TO WATCH: Similarly, Drake will look to slow down San Diego senior quarterback Reid Sinnett, who owns an impressive 198.1 pass efficiency rating in PFL play. Drake's defensive unit also has seven interceptions in league play this season. Senior Will Warner has picked off four passes in his last three games, including two in the Week 9 win against Morehead State.

2019 TITLE RACE TAKES BIG TURN IN WEEK 9

Drake and San Diego each won their Week 9 contests to set up a showdown between the two 4-0 PFL clubs in Week 10 as San Diego hosts Drake in the league's nightcap. Dayton, Davidson, Morehead State, and Stetson each were 2-1 a week ago, but each lost in Week 9 and are now 2-2 and are left looking for help during the season's final four weeks.

VALPARAISO'S BOOK NAMED STATS FCS DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Stetson entered the game with the most-potent offense in FCS statistics, but Booker helped Valparaiso stymie the fellow Pioneer Football League squad 19-10 to earn its first win of the season. Booker had 13 tackles (seven solos), two interceptions for the second time this season and a pass breakup. Both picks came inside Valpo's 25, with the first one leading to a go-ahead field goal and the second clinching the win. He had 32 interception return yards. It is the third national STATS FCS honor by a PFL athlete this season.

MARIST #SETTHEEXPECTATION

Marist's game against Butler, Saturday, will be the Red Foxes' second #SetTheExpectation game. #SetTheExpectation is a campaign that engages male athletes and their coaches as the solution to end sexual assault and physical violence. It is spearheaded by Brenda Tracy, who has traveled to college campuses nationwide to deliver her message, including Marist in the spring of 2017. The Red Foxes' participation in the campaign is led by Marist's Center for Student-Athlete Enhancement in partnership with Tracy. Sponsors also include Marist's Title IX Office, Marist Dining Services, Marist's Chapter of It's On Us, and The Purple Thread.

SAN DIEGO'S PFL WIN STREAK THIRD LONGEST IN FCS HISTORY

With its win at Dayton in Week 9, San Diego's extended its PFL win streak to 33 games. It is the third longest conference win streak in FCS history. It trails a 39-game win streak by Duquesne in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Association (1999-06) and a 36-game win streak by Jacksonville State of the Ohio Valley Conference (2013-18).

CHAMBERLIN RECORDS 500TH GAME AS A FLYER

There are few things that can challenge the longevity of Dayton's scoring streak. However, Rick Chamberlin's tenure as a Flyer surpasses even that streak. When he took up his position on the sideline against San Diego in Week 9 it was his 500th appearance as a Flyer. He played 45 as an All-American linebacker, then 326 games as an assistant coach under College Football Hall of Fame coach Mike Kelly, before taking over for his mentor and now 129 games – and counting – as Dayton's head coach.

FOSTER NAMED STATS FCS SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Morehead State kicker Andrew Foster became the second PFL athlete to earn STATS FCS weekly honors in 2019, picking up the organization's National FCS Special Teams Player of the Week award after Week 7 action. Foster made three field goals and scored 12 points as Morehead State downed Jacksonville, 30-22, for the first time since 2005. He became the second PFL kicker to convert twice from 40 yards in the same game this season, hitting from 45 and 43 yards while making all three of his field goal attempts.

PFL WELL REPRESENTED ON CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST LIST

Five Pioneer Football League student-athletes were named as semifinalists for the 2019 William V. Campbell Trophy presented by Mazada and The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame. The five PFL student-athletes recognized as semifinalists were: Brad Sznajder, Butler; Ethan Steinbacher, Davidson; Tim Simon, Dayton; Andrew McElroy, Marist; and Gaven DeFilippo, Stetson. That quintet joins a group that now includes 82 PFL student-athletes who have been named a semifinalist for the Campbell Trophy, or its predecessor the Draddy Trophy, since 1998.

CORWIN NAMED STATS FCS FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Drake freshman Ian Corwin put it all together in his best performance and Drake's first win of the season, 41-17 at Marist, Sept. 28. Corwin completed 20 of 29 passes (69 percent) for 255 yards and four touchdowns with one interception. The four touchdown passes went to four different receivers and were one more than he threw in the first three games combined.

DUGGER PUSHES PAST 3,000 YARDS

Davidson running back Wesley Dugger pushed past the 3,000 career yard mark against Marist, Oct. 26. One of two juniors among the FCS Top 10 Active Career Leaders, he is ranked fourth in total rushing yardage (3,007), averaging 107.4 yards per game (2nd among active career leaders). He is just ahead of Monmouth junior Pete Guerriero (3,001 yards) on the list. Dugger needs 286 yards to move into the PFL's career Top 10 in rushing yards (3,292 yards, Drake's Jonathan Taylor).

THE EFFICIENT COOK

Seeing a PFL quarterback listed on the FCS Active Career Leaders list in passing efficiency is a normal occurrence. However, that quarterback not having San Diego next to their name is a new twist. Dayton signal caller Jack Cook is ranked No. 2 on the FCS' active career leader list with a 157.97 career pass efficiency rating. That would rank second all-time on the PFL's career pass efficiency list, behind San Diego's Josh Johnson's 176.68 mark (2004-07)

BANDY CATCHES 3,000 YARD TRAIN

Meanwhile, San Diego wide receiver Michael Bandy moved past the 3,000 receiving yard plateau in Week 9. He now is ranked fourth among FCS active career leaders with 3,016 career receiving yards. Bandy is the ninth PFL receiver to record 3,000 career receiving yards and enters this week ninth all-time, 96 yards from moving past Dylan Ching (3,111 yards) for eighth on the list.

WARNER BACK ATOP FCS CAREER LEADERS

Drake's defensive back Will Warner has nabbed four interceptions in his last three games and has regained the top spot on the NCAA's Active Career Leaders list for picks. He now has 15 career interceptions, the eighth PFL defender to record 15 career INTs. Morehead State's David Hyland and Dayton's Mark Kasmer hold the PFL record with 21 interceptions each.

DAVIDSON'S HATALOWICH NAMED TO ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM

Davidson linebacker George Hatalowich was named to the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team Sept. 12. As the founder and current president of Davidson Football Uplifting Athletes, George has been responsible for raising more than $25,000 to benefit the rare disease community. George has also taken the Davidson Chapter a step further to engage with local patients, families and caregivers through the Uplifting Athletes Bowling event, which allows the families the opportunity to bowl alongside the football team. The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team will be invited to the 2020 Allstate® Sugar Bowl® and will join Tebow and Allstate volunteers to give back to New Orleans through a special community service project. Allstate will recognize the team during the halftime show. Fans are invited to visit ESPN.com/Allstate to vote for the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team captain once per day, now through Nov. 22.

DAYTON FLIES TO HISTORIC WIN

Facing the No. 14 team in the FCS, Dayton faced daunting odds to win its season opener at Indiana State. But when Sean Proffit scored with 1:57 left the Flyers had an opportunity. Then Zach Rumpke turned that opportunity into reality with a interception to seal the win. It was the highest-ranked FCS opponent a Dayton team had defeated in program history and was the PFL's third win all-time against the Missouri Valley Football Conference.

LEANINE FIRST-TEAM ALL-PFL RETURNEES HIGHLIGHT PRE-SEASON SQUAD

The 29-member Preseason All-PFL squad saw nine First-Team All-PFL selections return from the 2018 season. Three 2018 first-teamers return on offense with San Diego wide receiver Michael Bandy leading the unit. Drake defensive back Will Warner leads a group of five 2018 first-team selections on the league's preseason defensive unit. San Diego return specialist Michael Armstead is the lone returning first-team selection on the league's special teams unit. Six PFL teams have a First-Team All-PFL returnee on their roster in 2018: San Diego (3), Drake (2), Davidson, Dayton, Jacksonville and Stetson

SAN DIEGO PICKED TO WIN PFL

For the ninth consecutive year, San Diego was picked to win the Pioneer Football League regular-season race in a preseason vote of the league's coaches. San Diego, which has won regular-season title each of the past three seasons, again received the coaches' nod to win the 2019 PFL title. With seven first-place votes, the Toreros were chosen ahead of Dayton and Drake, who picked up the remaining three first-place votes.

THREE PFL PUNTERS NAMED TO FCS PUNTER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

A trio of Pioneer Football League punters were named to the inaugural FCS Punter of the Year Award Watch List presented by The Augusta Sports Council. Drake's Ross Kennedy, Morehead State's Andrew Foster and San Diego's Tanner Kuljian were each named to the 28-player list released in July. Each of the three finished 2018 ranked among the NCAA's Top 100 punters in punting average. Kuljian was ranked No. 14 nationally, averaging 42.8 yards per punt on 59 kicks. Foster was No. 26 among FCS kickers with 41.9 yards per punt. Kennedy finished the season No. 93 among FCS punters (37.1 yards per punt).

BANDY, TRAUTMAN, WANRER EARN FCS PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA NODS

San Diego wide receiver Michael Bandy, Dayton tight end Adam Trautman and Drake defensive back Will Waner made the rounds as the Preseason All-America squads were announced. Bandy was named to all four Preseason All-America teams (STATS, Athlon, Phill Steele and HERO), Warner was named to three (STATS, Phill Steele and HERO) and Trautman earned recognition on two (STATS and Phill Steele).

THIRTY-FIVE PFL ATHLETES NAMED TO 2019 NFF HAMPSHIRE SOCIETY

Thirty-five Pioneer Football League student-athletes, representing seven member institutions, were named members of the 2019 NFF Hampshire Honor Society, the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame announced in April. The NFF's Hampshire Honor Society recognizes those college football players from all divisions of play that maintained a cumulative 3.2 GPA or better throughout their college careers.

FOUR NOMINATED FOR ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM

Three Pioneer Football League student-athletes were among 137 nominees from across the country for the 28th edition of the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®. George Hatalowich (Davidson), Luke Butera (Marist) and Ryan Culhane (Dayton) were nominated for the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®. In order to meet the criteria set forth by Allstate and the AFCA, each player must be actively involved with a charitable organization or service group while maintaining a strong academic standing.

PARADY DEAN OF PFL, FCS COACHES

As 2019 gets underway, the longest-tenured coaches in Division I FCS are Marist's Jim Parady and Monmouth's Kevin Callahan, who have been head coaches at their respective schools since 1992. On the other end of the spectrum, the PFL welcomes two new head coaches in 2019: Valparaiso's Landon Fox and Drake's Jeff Stepsis, who were part of 24 new head coaches in the FCS this season.

LANDON FOX TAKES OVER AT VALPARAISO

In March Valparaiso Director of Athletics Mark LaBarbera introduced Landon Fox as the 18th head coach of the Crusaders football program. Fox is no stranger to success in the Pioneer Football League, as he spent the 11 previous season as Dayton's defensive coordinator and secondary coach. During that time, the Flyers compiled an 86-38 record, won three PFL championships and participated in the 2015 FCS playoffs while making defense a hallmark of the program.

STETSON'S HUGHES EARNS CONTRACT EXTENSION

Coming off the best season in more than 65 years, Stetson football coach Roger Hughes was rewarded with a contract extension that will keep him on the Hatters sideline through at least the 2021 season. Hughes, who has guided the Stetson football program since 2011 when he was charged with leading the program onto the field after more than 50 years without a team, was named Pioneer Football League Coach of the Year in 2018.

DRAKE NAMES STEPSIS HEAD COACH

Todd Stepsis, the architect of the Drake football team's nationally-ranked defense, was named the head coach of the Drake football team in December. He takes the reins of the Bulldogs' program after serving as the program's defensive coordinator for the past five seasons under previous head coach Rick Fox, who resigned his position. As the defensive coordinator, Stepsis built the Drake defense into one of the nation's top units and coached a total of 42 all-conference selections including the program's all-time leading tackler and the 2018 PFL Defensive Player of the Year, Nathan Clayberg.

PFL'S 27TH CAMPAIGN

The 2019 season marks the 27th year for the Pioneer Football League – the nation's only non-scholarship, football-only NCAA Football Championship Subdivision conference. The league will feature 10 teams each playing an eight-game schedule to determine the league champion and recipient of the automatic bid to the 2018 NCAA FCS Championship.

PRESBYTERIAN TO JOIN PFL IN 2021

In 2019, the Pioneer Football League Commissioner presidents' council agreed to accept Presbyterian College's request for membership, effective for the 2021 season. Presbyterian College's football program will remain a Big South member for the 2019 season while continuing to phase out scholarships in order to obtain PFL eligibility. The Blue Hose will play one season as a Division I independent in 2020 before joining the PFL in 2021.

c - co-champions

- Jacksonville vacated its 2010 co-championship as part of penalties for PFL rules violations.

Notes on PFL Championship: From 1993-2000 - and returning to the format in 2005 - the PFL was composed of one division and the championship was awarded to the team with the best conference record. From 2001-2005, the league expanded and split into two divisions with the divisional winners, who were the teams with the best record against divisional opponents, facing off in a championship game, the winner of that game was awarded the league's championship.

NOTES: The PFL records on this page reflect PFL penalties imposed against Jacksonville (# - vacated 30 wins during the 2010-14 seasons) and San Diego (% - vacated 7 wins during the 2013 season). In accordance with NCAA policy, the wins and ties, but not the losses, of the penalized team are dropped from its PFL record only. The won-lost records for each of the opposing teams are not changed when games are vacated. In addition, the overall records for both teams were not changed.
